

PAINTER FELL TO HIS DEATH

Frank Neal, of Jethro, Killed by
a Fall While at Work
at Empire.

HIS RIBS WERE BROKEN

And Other Internal Injuries Resulted Fatally After Intense Suffering.

BROTHER SAW ACCIDENT.

Frank Neal, a painter, who resides in Jethro Hollow, met with a fatal accident at Empire Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock while engaged in painting the house of Richard Bell, of that town. His brother, I. N. Neal, also of this city, was his companion at work.

Neal had placed a ladder against the kitchen roof of the house and a board from the ladder over to the cornice at the top of the building about 10 feet higher than the kitchen roof. In some manner the board gave way, precipitating Neal to the ground, a distance of 22 feet.

He alighted on a post at the gate, the fall breaking two of his ribs and badly crushing another. He was picked up almost unconscious and carried into the home of Mr. Bell.

Dr. Collins, of Toronto, and Dr. Albaugh, of Empire, were summoned, and used all efforts possible to save the life of the unfortunate man, but it was found that he had been badly injured internally, his liver having been lacerated by contact with the crushed ribs. He lingered until 2:30 o'clock Sunday morning, suffering intensely, and death came to his aid.

The body was brought to his late home in Jethro on the 3 o'clock train Sunday afternoon.

Frank Neal was 39 years old and had been married twice. A married daughter, two single daughters and a son by his first wife survive him, and two young children by his second marriage, as well as the widow, mourn his unfortunate fate.

ROLLED OVER A HILL

Two Lisbon Men And a Rig Had a Frightful Experience.

Lisbon, June 30.—(Special)—Surveyor G. P. Farmer and his assistant, Lycurgus Green, of Lisbon, had an accident last Friday evening which might easily have had very serious results. They were driving down Kendall's hill, about two miles from Elkton, after dark, and were so anxious to keep from running over the hill that they upset the rig on the other side of the road at a very narrow place.

The buggy rolled over the embankment into the ravine and carried both men and the horse on an exciting roll to the bottom, about 50 feet below. The rig was smashed beyond repair, but no other damage was done.

THE WAGON A WRECK

Grocer's Outfit Ran Down Thompson
Hill And Smashed
Things.

A horse belonging to J. S. Campbell, the groceryman of Second and Market streets, ran away on Thompson hill Saturday afternoon. Mr. Campbell was taking orders and left the horse standing unhitched in the street. The animal started to walk down the hill and the wagon having no brake and lock began pushing on him, which scared him and he ran away, continuing his flight until he ran against a tree and fence near Monroe Patterson's house.

The delivery wagon was smashed badly and is almost a complete wreck. Groceries were scattered along the way and the horse sustained a number of cuts and bruises from the accident.

Bruised by a Fall.

Robert Twaddle and Jess Carey, two kilmen, were tapping a bung Saturday afternoon in a kiln at the Burford pottery, when both lost their balance. Carey managed to jump and save himself from injury, but Twaddle fell quite a distance, alighting on the green sagers. Beyond being considerably bruised, he did not sustain serious injury. He is off duty, however.

KEYSER DEFIED POLICE OFFICERS

INFORMED THEM IT WAS USE-
LESS TO ARREST HIM.

They Saw the Point, Although He Was
Said to Be Raising Great
Disturbance.

Officers McDermott and Aufderheide had an unenviable experience late Saturday night when they went to Jack Keyser's shanty boat near the old flint mill in response to a telephone message, stating that Jack was on one of his very common sprees and was making things very uncomfortable for his wife and children.

The rain was dashing when the officers made their nocturnal visit and they had the greatest difficulty in reaching the boat. When within a hundred yards of his home they heard his fiendish yells and the screams of his wife and family, but to their utter surprise when they boarded the boat and secured entrance Jack was in bed and to all appearances asleep.

Knowing that he was shamming the officers rudely aroused him and they state that he at first cried like a baby, but finally became bold and laughed at them when they threatened to take him to the central police station, informing them that the mayor could do nothing but turn him loose. This the officers knew was true, because the man is crippled, having but one leg and a broken arm. The work house will not accept cripples, and he having gone to his quarters, the officers let him remain.

HARRY PARSONS, NEWSPAPER ARTIST, AND HIS BRIDE,
SENATOR HANNA'S DAUGHTER MABEL.

Mabel Hanna, daughter of the millionaire United States senator from Ohio, evidently has a mind of her own. When Harry Parsons, the poor Cleveland newspaper artist, told her that he loved her, and she admitted that she reciprocated the feeling, she engaged secretly, got the young man the position of private secretary to her father and finally won the senator's consent to their marriage, which was recently solemnized.

AN AGED VICTIM OF HIGHWAYMEN

John Mack Says He Was Robbed
by John Brown and Another Man.

WAS FIRST KNOCKED DOWN

Identifies Brown As One of His Assail-
ants—Police Looking for the Other.
His Story of the Assault Upon Him.
Stolen Pocketbook Recovered.

To a charge of highway robbery John Brown, when arraigned before the mayor this morning, pleaded not guilty, and was committed to jail without bail, to await preliminary examination set for Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The story of the affair, as unfolded by the victim, John Mack, who is nearing 70 years, and who makes his home with James Webb, the building contractor, was quite pathetic, and the officers present when he preferred the charge were perceptibly moved. A man of years, tottering the streets helplessly, to be the victim of an outrageous assault was something the staid officers could not view with indifference.

He said: "I was standing on the Diamond last evening about 5 o'clock when this man Brown and another man came up to me and wanted me to take them to a saloon and buy them a drink. I told them I had no money, but they kept insisting, and when they offered me a razor for 50 cents I bought it, and thought I was rid of them. They went away but in a few minutes came back and Brown wanted me to go to the alley near the fire station on East Market street.

"I did not know what he wanted but went anyway. When I got there the man that I don't know hit me under the eye and knocked me down into a dry goods box. Brown then put one of his hands over my mouth and with the other reached in my pocket and stole my pocketbook, which had $6 in it. Then they both started to run away, but Brown came back and tried to act as if he didn't do it but that he was a friend of mine."

Officer Ruhe, who made the arrest, continued the story. He said:

"Brown and Mr. Mack entered the fire station together and Brown said that two fellows had assaulted and robbed Mack and that some of the officers ought to look into the matter. Mack immediately said: 'There is the man that got my money, pointing at Brown. Brown denied it strongly and objected to my searching him, but I did and found the pocketbook with the money. He acted as though very much surprised.'"

Brown has darkened the mayor's office threshold probably more than any other man in the city, and as his reputation is against him it is very likely that he will be given the full penalty of the law if found guilty of the crime for which he is now incarcerated. The police are making a search for the unknown man but are handicapped, not having even a good description of him.

I. O. O. F. Degrees.

East Liverpool lodge No. 379, of the I. O. F., will confer the second and third degrees upon five members at their regular meeting to-night.

AN EARLY SESSION STRONGLY URGED

Judge Shauck Says It Is Imperative That the Legislature
Meet Soon.

GOV. NASH WILL NOT DELAY

Deathknell of Ripper Legislation
Sounded—The Great Democratic
Feast of Oratory And Clams—Se-
bring Wants a Military Company.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, June 30.—It is practically settled that an extra session of the legislature will be held at an early date. Talk was indulged in that the solons would not be called together until after the fall election, but Governor Nash has disposed of this by stating that he proposes to act with as much haste as is compatible with the interests of the state in the matter of calling an extraordinary session. Judge Shauck, of the supreme court, who wrote the opinions in the famous Toledo and Cleveland cases, says an early session is imperative.

In an interview, the well known jurist said: "There are two important propositions to be considered. First, the municipal code bill, and then the amendment to the Royer act. It would not take 15 minutes to draw a bill amending the Royer law so that the supreme court would be restored to its original jurisdiction. The municipal code question is an important one, and yet it should not take a commission long to map out a plan of action, as the Comings municipal code bill, when the legislature adjourned, was left in fairly good shape. That would be the basis for a new bill." The judge pronounced the principle in the bill providing for the classification of cities and villages sound. It provides that municipalities over 5,000 population shall be classed as cities, and those under that mark, villages. He said this would be constitutional. He does not consider it necessary for the special session to consider the county officers' salary matter. The recent decisions of the court sounds the death knell of ripper legislation. The policy of the court is well known now, and it will be mere waste of time hereafter to enact this sort of legislation because it will be promptly thrown out by the courts. The attitude of the court does not suit the politicians in many of the large cities, but it will commend itself to the vast majority of the common people. While the municipalities of the state have been suddenly plunged into a muddled condition, they will surely, in due course of time, be placed on a firm and stable foundation. The action of the court simply hastens the coming of a uniform system of government for Ohio cities.

Democracy's big clambake will be held in this city tomorrow. Last Saturday the fires were started under the supervision of an expert from the east who knows all there is worth knowing about clams. Between 5,000 and 10,000 clams will be consumed. Of course there will be a big crowd present. There will be enough to eat, and speechmaking until you can't rest. The managers hope to make the meeting a harmony affair. All the various branches of the party will be on hand. Hon. John C. Welty, of Canton, will discourse on "Keep on Letting Well Enough Alone." Ex-Mayor James A. Rice, of Canton, will regale his auditors with "Cuss Words For the Enemy."

There is a movement on foot to form an independent military company at Sebring. Those who have been pushing it have communicated with Adjutant General Gyger in regard to securing Springfield rifles for the members, but as the state has none available they will have to get them from some other source. Former members of the old East Liverpool company which was in the Eighth regiment until the close of the Spanish war, are interested in the movement. They are employed in the Sebring potteries.

HIS PLAN OF CAMPAIGN.

An anti-saloon campaign is in progress.

Rev. Dr. Perley A. Baker, of Columbus, superintendent of the Ohio Anti-Saloon league, is in the city, having arrived on Saturday evening. He will remain for several days and while here he hopes to enthrone the temperance advocates to such an extent that they will take certain decisive steps which will result in the abolishment of the saloon in this municipality.

With that object in view Dr. Baker addressed congregations in the First M. E. First Presbyterian and First Methodist Protestant churches yesterday, and today met a joint session of the ministers of the city and presented to them the reasons for the obliteration of the saloons and told how to bring it about. He states that although he will do everything in his power toward the one end, he cannot do the work alone.

It is up to the people, he says, to unite in force, secure the endorsement of the business men and all carry on a campaign together. Then, he believes, the chances will be greatly in favor of a temperance victory. Just when the steps are to be commenced in the work he was unable to say, but advised that if the law abiding citizens want the question voted on, they have the votes cast before the late fall. His argument for this was that only during the summer months can out-of-door meetings be held with any satisfactory results, and as such meetings will be very essential before the vote is taken he urges that the delay be not of long duration. The most potent of his remarks made before the several congregations yesterday follow:

"You have a mighty struggle before you in the abolishment of the saloon from your community. It is hardly necessary for me to point out to you the curses brought upon your citizens as the result of the rum traffic. You certainly, as Christian men and women, not being among the low element, have a desire always to soar among the righteous. However, I am afraid you do not realize the enormity of the crime which lurks around these cursed holes.

"I visited three saloons in your city last night, and the sights that met my eyes can only be compared with those witnessed in the lowest dens of our largest cities. One of these saloons was occupied by young men and women, all drunk and carousing in debauchery of the lowest state. The women were of the vilest character. Some of them were yet in their teens. For me to describe the terrible way in which they were acting would not be in the realms of decency. How can the good people of the city sit and be content while such things are occurring in their midst?

"The sights in these saloons did not impress me as much as did others that confronted me. I don't believe that I ever saw in any city as many young girls from 14 to 20 years of age roaming the streets at midnight. They were out by the dozens, meeting boys and men of the lowest depths of degradation. I am sure that a great many of these girls come from respectable families. Is it possible that Christian people are going to let the chance drift past without doing something toward ridding the community of the curse which is the instigator of all these evils?

"Rum shops are to be abhorred in every locality of the world. They breed crime of every type. Anarchy would not exist were it not for the saloons. Follow President McKinley's assassin from his early boyhood until he sat in the electric chair. You will find that he was raised in the saloon and that every anarchistic view promulgated to him was made in a saloon.

"The awful curse has been provided for by the state legislature. When the Beall local option bill was passed the right was thereby given the people to

A TRIBUTE TO M'KINLEY.

Tablet of Judge Anderson Unveiled in M. E. Church, in Washington, President Present.

Washington, June 30.—A small tablet of white marble bearing in letters of gold a brief statement of the life and deeds of William McKinley, the tribute of his friend, Judge Thomas H. Anderson, formerly of Ohio, but now a member of the District bench, was unveiled in the Metropolitan M. E. church here yesterday. The unveiling was attended with a simple ceremony, in the presence of some of those who had helped the dead president to execute the will of the people.

Well-known men added their tributes to the solemn melodies of the choir in making the occasion a memorial one. The American flag that concealed the tablet was drawn aside as the congregation sang with deep feeling, "Nearer, My God, to Thee." The tablet occupies a position on the north wall of the main auditorium, midway between the two entrances to the church.

President Roosevelt and Secretary Cortelyou were present. Addresses were made by Rev. Frank Bristol, D. D., pastor of the church; Senator Fairbanks, Representative Grosvenor and Representative Robert W. Taylor, of Ohio, who now represents the district in congress formerly represented by President McKinley.

The tablet is about three feet high by two feet wide, and is in the form of a shield. At the apex of the shield a small cross is carved, while at the bottom is the shield from the great seal of the United States. Beneath the cross are the words, "Nearer My God, to Thee." The main inscription is on the body of the shield. Below the border are the last words of the dead president—"Thy will, not ours, be done."

House Session Sunday in Memory of Cummings and Otey.

Washington, June 30.—The house of representatives held a session yesterday to pay tribute to the memories of the late Representative Cummings, of New York, and the late Representative Peter J. The widows and families of the deceased occupied the speaker's pew in the galleries, and delegations from Typographical Union No. 6, of New York; the Letter Carriers' association, and the New York Pilots' association came here to honor Mr. Cummings' memory. The public galleries were well filled.

The eulogies were exceedingly impressive, especially that led by Mr. Cannon, of Illinois, the veteran chairman of the appropriations committee, who paid a tribute from the heart to the lofty character and manly honesty of Mr. Cummings. Others also paid eulogies. Speeches of eulogy were also made by certain members in memory of Mr. Otey.

CLASSIC ENTRIES FOR AMERICAN DERBY.

Greatest of Western Races to Be Run at Chicago June 21—Abe Frank Is the Favorite.

The American Derby, to be run at Washington park, Chicago, June 21, will be the greatest event of the year in western horse circles. Turfmen everywhere have been looking forward to the running of this race, and the starters will carry large sums of money.

Abe Frank, G. C. Bennett's chestnut colt, still holds favorite in the advance betting and according to form should "turn the trick," but the uncertainty of horse racing has shown conclusively that the most favorite of favorites can go wrong when put to the final test, and some unheard of outsider may get first money just as did Alfred Featherstone's four-year-old chestnut mare Reina in the recent Brooklyn handicap.

A fine field will go to the post in the American Derby, and among those sure to give Abe Frank a stirring tussle are Clarence H. Mackay's Heno, who is now said to be in top notch form despite recent defeats; Green B. Morris' Old England, R. T. Wilson's Dixieland, Jacob Worth's Oom Paul, E. J. Baldwin's Cruzados, S. C. Hildreth's McChesney, J. G. Follansbee's Keynote, J. E. Madden's Pentecost and J. A. Drakes' Wyeth and Runnels.

In the west McChesney and Cruzados are highly thought of by the "hot stove" circuit, but neither has been asked to display anything. Hildreth, who at the best is not communicative, says he is satisfied with McChesney, but knows no more than any one else how good the colt now is. He refuses to hurry him, although it is quite likely McChesney will be given a breezing before the Derby. Cruzados is receiving a world of tooting, almost enough to kill off his chances, according to the precedent which has ruled recent Derbys.

One of the significant deals of recent occurrence was the purchase by Sam Hildreth of the Derby candidate Lord Quex from Albert Simons. Lord Quex has been raced and unless he gets too much of it will be well seasoned, and it was the seasoned youngsters that won the last two Derbys, horses lightly thought of, but courageous and able to stand the racking journey. Lord Quex, in addition, can run on any kind of a track.

There is another western horse that deserves a word, although he generally has been thought shy in the class which makes up a real Derby horse. That is Lucien Appleby, also under the care of the shrewd trainer Hildreth. Appleby ran second to Articulate through the mud at Worth recently and, carrying only six pounds less, 106 to 112, was beaten a length and a half in a mile and seventy yards journey. Appleby probably would be smothered by the speed in front of him on a fast track, but if the Washington park track should happen to be heavy, as it was in 1898 and less so in 1900, he might be worth pondering over.

The American Derby is a sweepstakes for three-year-olds; $25 to accompany the nomination; $225 additional to start; $20,000 added, of which $3,000 goes to the second and $2,000 to the third horse. A winner of a three-year-old stake of the value of $3,000 to carry three pounds; of two such stakes, or $5,000, five pounds; of three or more three-year-old stakes of the value of $3,000 each, seven pounds extra. Maiden are allowed seven pounds. This year's race has ninety-seven nominations.

PAINTER FELL TO HIS DEATH

a Fall While at Work
at Empire.

HIS RIBS WERE BROKEN

And Other Internal Injuries Resulted Fatally After Intense Suffering.

BROTHER SAW ACCIDENT.

Frank Neal, a painter, who resides in Jethro Hollow, met with a fatal accident at Empire Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock while engaged in painting
the house of Richard Bell, of that town. His brother, I. N. Neal, also of this city, was his companion at work.

Neal had placed a ladder against the kitchen roof of the house and a board from the ladder over to the cornice at the top of the building about 10 feet higher than the kitchen roof. In some manner the board gave way, precipitating Neal to the ground, a distance of 22 feet.

He alighted on a post at the gate,
the fall breaking two of his ribs and badly crushing another. He was picked up almost unconscious and carried into the home of Mr. Bell.

Dr. Collins, of Toronto, and Dr. Albaugh, of Empire, were summoned,
and used all efforts possible to save the life of the unfortunate man, but it was found that he had been badly injured internally, his liver having been lacerated by contact with the crushed ribs. He lingered until 2:30 o'clock Sunday morning, suffering intensely,
and death came to his aid.

The body was brought to his late home in Jethro on the 3 o'clock train
Sunday afternoon.

Frank Neal was 39 years old and had been married twice. A married daughter, two single daughters and a son by his first wife survive him, and two young children by his second marriage,
as well as the widow, mourn his unfortunate fate.

No arrangements have as yet been made for the funeral, but in all probability it will be buried from the home tomorrow.

tress, but there are no bad symptoms
of any kind."

ROLLED OVER A HILL

Two Lisbon Men And a Rig Had a Frightful Experience.

Lisbon, June 30.—(Special)—
Surveyor G. P. Farmer and his assistant, Lycurgus Green, of Lisbon, had an accident last Friday evening which might easily have had very serious results. They were driving down Kendall's hill, about two miles from Elkton, after dark, and were so anxious to keep from running over the hill that they upset the rig on the other side of the road at a very narrow place.

The buggy rolled over the embankment into the ravine and carried both men and the horse on an exciting roll
to the bottom, about 50 feet below.
The rig was smashed beyond repair,
but no other damage was done.

Things.

A horse belonging to J. S. Campbell, the groceryman of Second and Market streets, ran away on Thompson hill Saturday afternoon. Mr. Campbell was taking orders and left the horse standing unhitched in the street. The animal started to walk down the hill and the wagon having no brake-lock began pushing on him, which scared him and he ran away, continuing his flight until he ran against a tree and fence near Monroe Patterson's house.

The delivery wagon was smashed
badly and is almost a complete wreck.
Groceries were scattered along the way and the horse sustained a number of cuts and bruises from the accident.

Bruised by a Fall.

Robert Twaddle and Jess Carey, two kalmen, were tapping a bung Saturday afternoon in a kiln at the Burford
pottery, when both lost their balance.
Carey managed to jump and save himself from injury, but Twaddle fell quite a distance, alighting on the green saggers. Beyond being considerably bruised, he did not sustain serious injury. He is off duty, however.

KEYSER DEFIED POLICE OFFICERS

Said to Be Raising Great
Disturbance.

Officers McDermott and Aufderheide
had an unenviable experience late Saturday night when they went to Jack Keyser's shanty boat near the old flint mill in response to a telephone message, stating that Jack was on one of his very common sprees and was making things very uncomfortable for his wife and children.

The rain was dashing when the officers made their nocturnal visit and they had the greatest difficulty in reaching the boat. When within a hundred yards of his home they heard his fiendish yells and the screams of his wife and family, but to their utter surprise when they boarded the boat and secured entrance Jack was in bed
and to all appearances asleep.

Knowing that he was shamming the officers rudely aroused him and they state that he at first cried like a baby,
but finally became bold and laughed at them when they threatened to take him to the central police station, informing them that the mayor could do nothing but turn him loose. This the officers knew was true, because the man is crippled, having but one leg
and a broken arm. The work house will not accept cripples, and he having gone to his quarters, the officers
let him remain.

CHARGED WITH THEFT

Two Columbiana Men Lodged in Jail in Default of Bail.

Lisbon, June 30.—(Special)—
Israel Hooker and Charles Garwood, of Columbiana, have been lodged in the county jail. Garwood pleaded guilty before Squire Harrold to stealing a box containing money and jewelry, worth 40 from the rooms of Maggie Houlette at the residence of Travers Cope.

Hooker is charged with breaking into Cope's barn and stealing side meat and hams worth $20. He pleaded not guilty before the justice. They are each held in default of $500.

in enforcing their rates.

Mabel Hanna, daughter of the millionaire United States senator from Ohio, evidently has a mind of her own. When Harry Parsons, the poor Cleveland newspaper artist, told her that he loved her, and she admitted that she reciprocated the feeling, she engaged in secrecy, got the young man the position of private secretary to her father and finally won the senator's consent to their marriage, which was recently solemnized.

by John Brown and Another Man.

WAS FIRST KNOCKED DOWN

Identifies Brown As One of His Assail-
ants—Police Looking for the Other.
His Story of the Assault Upon Him.
Stolen Pocketbook Recovered.

To a charge of highway robbery
John Brown, when arraigned before the mayor this morning, pleaded not guilty, and was committed to jail without bail, to await preliminary examination set for Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The story of the affair, as unfolded by the victim, John Mack, who is nearing 70 years, and who makes his home with James Webb, the building contractor, was quite pathetic, and the officers present when he preferred the charge were perceptibly moved. A man of years, tottering the streets helplessly, to be the victim of an outrageous assault was something the staid officers could not view with indifference.

He said: "I was standing on the Diamond last evening about 5 o'clock
when this man Brown and another man came up to me and wanted me to take them to a saloon and buy them
a drink. I told them I had no money, but they kept insisting, and when they offered me a razor for 50 cents I bought it, and thought I was rid of them. They went away but in a few minutes came back and Brown wanted me to go to the alley near the fire station on East Market street.

"I did not know what he wanted but went anyway. When I got there the man that I don't know hit me under the eye and knocked me down into a dry goods box. Brown then put one of his hands over my mouth and with the other reached in my pocket and stole my pocketbook, which had $6
in it. Then they both started to run away, but Brown came back and tried to act as if he didn't do it but that he was a friend of mine."

Officer Ruhe, who made the arrest,
continued the story. He said:

"Brown and Mr. Mack entered the fire station together and Brown said that two fellows had assaulted and robbed Mack and that some of the officers ought to look into the matter.
Mack immediately said: 'There is the man that got my money, pointing at Brown. Brown denied it strongly and objected to my searching him, but I did and found the pocketbook with the money. He acted as though very much surprised.'"

Brown has darkened the mayor's office threshold probably more than any other man in the city, and as his reputation is against him it is very likely that he will be given the full penalty of the law if found guilty of the crime for which he is now incarcerated. The police are making a search for the unknown man but are handicapped, not having even a good description of him.

AN EARLY SESSION STRONGLY URGED

Judge Shauck Says It Is Impera-
tive That the Legislature

GOV. NASH WILL NOT DELAY

Sounded—The Great Democratic
bring Wants a Military Company.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, June 30.—It is practically settled that an extra session of the legislature will be held at an early date. Talk was indulged in that the sessions would not be called together
until after the fall election, but Governor Nash has disposed of this by stating that he proposes to act with as much haste as is compatible with the interests of the state in the matter of calling an extraordinary session. Judge Shauck, of the supreme court, who wrote the opinions in the famous Toledo and Cleveland cases, says an early session is imperative.

In an interview, the well known jurist said: "There are two important propositions to be considered.
First, the municipal code bill, and then the amendment to the Royer act. It would not take 15 minutes to draw a bill amending the Royer law so that the supreme court would be restored to its original jurisdiction. The municipal code question is an important one, and yet it should not take a commission long to map out a plan of action, as the Comings municipal code bill, when the legislature adjourned, was left in fairly good shape. That would be the basis for a new bill." The judge pronounced the principle in the bill providing for the classification of cities and villages sound.

It provides that municipalities over 5,000 population shall be classed as cities, and those under that mark, villages. He said this would be constitutional. He does not consider it necessary for the special session to consider the county officers' salary matter. The recent decisions of the court sounds the death knell of ripper legislation. The policy of the court is well known now, and it will be mere waste of time hereafter to enact this sort of legislation because it will be promptly thrown out by the courts.
The attitude of the court does not suit
the politicians in many of the large cities, but it will commend itself to the vast majority of the common people. While the municipalities of the state have been suddenly plunged into a muddled condition, they will surely,
in due course of time, be placed on a firm and stable foundation. The action of the court simply hastens the coming of a uniform system of government for Ohio cities.

Democracy's big clambake will be held in this city tomorrow. Last Saturday the fires were started under the supervision of an expert from the east
who knows all there is worth knowing about clams. Between 5,000 and 10,- 000 clams will be consumed. Of course there will be a big crowd present. There will be enough to eat, and speechmaking until you can't rest. The managers hope to make the meeting a harmony affair. All the various branches of the party will be on hand.
Hon. John C. Welty, of Canton, will

discourse on "Keep on Letting Well Enough Alone." Ex-Mayor James A.
Rice, of Canton, will regale his auditors with "Cuss Words For the Enemy."

There is a movement on foot to form an independent military company at Sebring. Those who have been pushing it have communicated with Adjutant General Gyger in regard to securing Springfield rifles for the members,
but as the state has none available
they will have to get them from some other source. Former members of the old East Liverpool company which was in the Eighth regiment until the close of the Spanish war, are interested in the movement. They are employed in the Sebring potteries.

CAMBLERS CAUGHT AT TERRY CARMAN'S

A RAID ON SUNDAY RESULTED IN 17 ARRESTS.

Proprietor Accused of Running Gambling Resort—Hearing
Tonight.

Without the least difficulty Chief Thompson and Officers Dawson and Morris raided a gambling joint over Terry Carman's saloon in the Midway on Saturday night. The games were running in full blast when the officers made their entrance and 17 men were caught red-handed. They gave the following names: Harry Andrews, Pike Anderson, Moses Thompson, Carl Smith, William Critter, Thomas Johnson, George Donaldson, Lewis Houston, Charles Pugh, Joe Stevenson, Hamil Davidson, Jake Watson, Cal
Jackson, Henry Fowler, Sterling Mc-Kinnon, Clifford Riley and Edward Mc-Bride.

A charge of keeping a gambling house has been preferred against Carman and a charge of gambling against his understudies. They will be given a hearing this evening by the mayor.

that he will probably recover.

jail from East Rochester some time ago charged with assaulting Monroe Mangus, a playmate, and stealing 25 cents, had a hearing before Judge Boone today. The judge, after careful consideration, sentenced him to the

which had been purchased by the brewing company.

HIS PLAN OF CAMPAIGN.

An anti-saloon campaign is in progress.

Rev. Dr. Perley A. Baker, of Columbus, superintendent of the Ohio Anti-Saloon league, is in the city, having arrived on Saturday evening. He will remain for several days and while here
he hopes to enthuse the temperance advocates to such an extent that they will take certain decisive steps which will result in the abolishment of the saloon in this municipality.

With that object in view Dr. Baker addressed congregations in the First
M. E. First Presbyterian and First Methodist Protestant churches yesterday, and today met a joint session of the ministers of the city and presented to them the reasons for the obliteration
of the saloons and told how to bring it about. He states that although he will do everything in his power toward the one end, he cannot do the work alone.

It is up to the people, he says, to unite in force, secure the endorsement of the business men and all carry on a campaign together. Then, he believes, the chances will be greatly in favor of a temperance victory. Just when the steps are to be commenced
in the work he was unable to say,
but advised that if the law abiding citizens want the question voted on, they have the votes cast before the late fall. His argument for this was that only during the summer months can out-of-door meetings be held with any satisfactory results, and as such meetings will be very essential before the vote is taken he urges that the delay
be not of long duration. The most potent of his remarks made before the several congregations yesterday follow:

"You have a mighty struggle before you in the abolishment of the saloon from your community. It is hardly necessary for me to point out to you
the curses brought upon your citizens
as the result of the rum traffic. You certainly, as Christian men and women, not being among the low element, have a desire always to soar
among the righteous. However, I am afraid you do not realize the enormity of the crime which lurks around these cursed holes.

"I visited three saloons in your city last night and the sights that met my eyes can only be compared with those witnessed in the lowest dens of our largest cities. One of these saloons was occupied by young men and women, all drunk and carousing in debauchery of the lowest state. The women were of the vilest character. Some of them were yet in their teens. For me to describe the terrible way in which they were acting would not be in the realms of decency. How can the good people of the city sit and be content while such things are occur-ing in their midst?

"The sights in these saloons did not impress me as much as did others that I ever saw in any city as many young girls from 14 to 20 years of age roaming the streets at midnight. They were out by the dozens, meeting boys
and men of the lowest depths of degradation. I am sure that a great many of these girls come from respectable families. Is it possible that Christian people are going to let the chance drift past without doing something toward ridding the community of the curse which is the instigator of all these evils?

"Rum shops are to be abhorred in every locality of the world. They breed crime of every type. Anarchy would not exist were it not for the saloons.
Follow President McKinley's assassin
from his early boyhood until he sat in the electric chair. You will find that he was raised in the saloon and that every anarchistic view promulgated to him was made in a saloon.

"The awful curse has been provided for by the state legislature. When the Beall local option bill was passed the right was thereby given the people to ities."

RECEPTION TO VISITORS

Very Cordial Welcome Extended to the Visiting Turners Last Evening.

CHANGES IN THE PROGRAM

Which Will Add to the Attractions of the Big District Fest.

LARGE CROWDS ARE COMING.

The biennial tournament of the Pittsburg Bezirks Turnfest opened in this city today, and will close Saturday evening. The event gives promise of being the most largely attended that has been held in recent years.
In fact, the local tournament will be a draw to those who have the affair in mind, judging from the way matters are now progressing.

It might properly be stated that the Turnfest started last evening
when the local society gave a reception to its members and those of the visitors who came in on the late trains. The Turner hall on Walnut street had been tastefully decorated for the event, the American colors invaded with those of the Turners' society predominating. In the main hall last night the names of several visiting societies were placed on the walls,
each society's name being printed on an American shield.

The following societies will be represented during the Turnfest: East Pittsburg, Allegheny, Birmingham, Braddock, Pa.; Central, of Pa.; United, Monongahela; Steuernville; Johnstown,
Pa.; Monaca, Southside Wheeling, Vorwaerts, Duquesne, Pa.; M. C. Miller, McKeesport, Troy Hill, Lawrenceville, Jeannette,
Pa.; Eintrach, Homestead, Pa.; East
Pittsburg, Central, Pittsburgh; Beaver Falls, Pa.; Allentown.

The foregoing societies compose the Pittsburg district, and each society will have a large representation present before the end of the week. At noon today a special committee of the local society left for Pittsburg to meet the eastern visitors, and they will return to the city on a special train that will leave Pittsburg at an hour that will cause the train to arrive here at 7 o'clock. Immediately following the arrival of the train a torch light procession will be given in honor of the visitors over a route from Second street to Market, to Fifth, to Jefferson,
to Sixth, to Walnut. There the parade will disband and a reception to the new visitors will be given in the hall.
Haines' and Manley's bands were secured for the entertainment of the visitors, and they will be secured for other entertainment during the week.

The Turner hall has been tastefully decorated, and contains several banners upon which have been printed various pictures of the Turnverein.
These have been placed in the assembly room, and with the other decorations present, a beautiful appearance.
One of the main features of the Turnfest is to be the Tyrolean dancers of Bavaria. They arrived in the city yesterday, and will be the main attraction of the German village
at Columbian park during the week.
Last evening this company entertained the local society in the hall on Walnut street, and their entertainment was most delightful. They will likely not appear at the park before tomorrow.

The original program as published has been altered much, and many more events have been prepared that will be given during the week. The society will not arrive in the city
until tomorrow, as for the commo-ment of the prize events, practically all of which will take place at Columbian park.

For the past two weeks many workmen have been engaged at the park, preparing it for the events of the week, and their task was completed only a few days ago. Throughout the entire park several hundred light poles have been placed, many of which are in the trees and in the woodland, and will be used for all light purposes.

Members of the Wheeling Turn-verein are making preparations to go in body to East Liverpool, to participate in the district Turnfest.
Prof. H. J. Arbenz, of Wheeling, will accompany the Turners. He has been elected as one of the three judges in the singing competitions, which will be a feature of the turnfest. Prof. Arbenz has been honored with this appointment five consecutive times, which is a rare distinction, because of the dissatisfaction always connected with the awarding of prizes in singing contests.

CRAZY WOMAN ATTACKS CROWD

USES UMBRELLA TO PUT THEM
TO FLIGHT.

Prominent Citizens Scolded And Beaten By an Irate, Unknown Female.

A crazy woman at the railroad station this morning created quite a disturbance and at least three prominent men of this city were made to feel like 30 cents. The name of the woman could not be learned, as no one dared go near enough to her to find out. She first attracted attention by asking a crowd of gentlemen where she could get a cab that would take her out of the city. In reply one of the crowd told her that the next train
would bear her to Dixmont.

"I don't want to go to Dixmont," she rejoined, "and I ain't any crazier than you are. I'll show you how to make fun of me. You have been following me around for four or five years, and I'll be darned if I don't make it warm
for you right now."

With this she grasped her umbrella and made a dash at the crowd. The men separated instantaneously and in a second not one of them was in the depot. A few minutes later three of the men, having watched the train depart, started up the hill. They had forgotten the occurrence, and were surprised when the woman turned abruptly and commenced another tirade.
She not only made a dash at them, but the end of her umbrella was brought forcibly in contact with the most dignified of the trio.

The scene following was indescribable. The injured man went hobbling away and never thought once of retaliation, knowing full well that a club
in the hands of a woman is like unto
a razor in the hands of a child.

The victims of the assault would not allow their names to be published,
but one is a city official; another, a young councilman, and the third a member of the East Liverpool Ministerial association.

TO REFORMATORY

SENTENCE PRONOUNCED ON ED-WARD BUCHHEIT.

Hsi Term of Imprisonment Depends on His Good Behavior.

Lisbon, July 1. — (Special.) — Edward Buchheit was sentenced this afternoon to the Ohio state reformatory
at Mansfield for an indefinite period. His term depends on his good behavior.

TRUANT OFFICER

Appointed By Board of Education And Routine Business Done.

At the meeting of the board of education last evening very little business was transacted. A number of bills were ordered paid; William Beardmore was appointed truant officer at a salary of $300 per year and the clerk
was instructed to enter into a contract with the American School Furnishing company for the purchase of necessary desks.

Will Drill More Wells.

R. B. Brown, M. Haymaker, Mr.
Pugh and F. E. Voder, of Pittsburg, oil operators visiting the Fredericks-town field yesterday, they having a well come in on the Stewart farm.
These gentlemen, in connection with one or two East Liverpool operators,
will drill two more wells in the same vicinity, and also put down a well on the George Hamilton farm near Frederickstown.

Died En Route Home.

Steuernville, July 1.—John McGuire, of this city, en route home from three years service as a soldier in the Philippines, died suddenly at Glenwood Springs, Col., on Saturday. He was 28 years old and had served in Company
B, Nineteenth infantry.

Four Strangers Arrested.

Four strangers from Rochester, two of them being women, were arrested
last night on Second street by Officer McDermott, for being drunk. They left forfeits and were released.

DELAHEY'S HOME, TO WHICH THE FAMOUS BOER GENERAL HAS RETURNED.

Despite the fact that the home of Delarey, the Boer general, is located in a district almost every inch of which was several times fought over during the recent war, it was found to be practically unharmed when peace was announced. Delarey's farm is within a few miles of the spot from which he made the historic swoop upon Methuen's command resulting in the capture and subsequent magnanimous release of that ill-starred general. Indeed, Methuen's objective point at that time was Rooivantsfontein, about twenty miles from Delarey's home.

GLORIOUS FOURTH IN EAST LIVERPOOL

No Elaborate Special Program,
But Enjoyment Enough
For All.

TURNFEST AND BASEBALL

With the Attractions of the Parks
Will Keep the Crowds Pleasantly
Employed—Mayor Says Celebrants
Must Be Cautious.

Although no steps have been taken by the citizens as a whole to make a gala day of the Fourth, it will most certainly be one of unalloyed enjoyment to all, sports and fun of every type having been arranged.

As is customary the residences,
business houses and streets will be adorned with the national emblem,
and the entire city will bring vividly
to mind the reason the day is so commemorated.

Probably the greatest demonstration will be witnessed at Columbian park, where masses of people will flock to enjoy and participate in the exercises of the Turners. All day long something will be going on at the park, and in anticipation many are making arrangements to spend the day there.

Rock Springs park will also be open to the public, and it is likely that the crowds will be attracted to that beautiful resort. The two ball games at West End park will draw immense crowds, and taking the entertainment
as it is provided throughout the city,
no person need leave the community
for fear that he can find no enjoyment.

As a protection to the people Mayor Davidson will instruct the police to keep a close vigil on the smaller and indiscrete youths who usually insist on the shooting of dangerous firecrackers on the streets. The mayor states that he does not wish to deprive the boys of their fun, but that they must be careful in the discharge of the powdered missiles, as the lives of many have been wiped out and hundreds have been maimed for life as the result of improper Fourth of July jollification.

WANT TO MORTGAGE

Erie Street M. E. Church Desires to Raise Money for Parsonage.

Lisbon, July 1. — (Special.) —
The trustees of the Erie street M. E. church, of East Liverpool, have started an action in common pleas court, asking authority to mortgage their church property to secure money for parsonage purposes.

Taken to the Infirmary.

Lisbon, July 1. — (Special.) —
Mrs. Lottie Enich and little son were brought to the county infirmary yesterday from Wood county. They are residents of Salineville and had drifted to Wood county and become destitute.

Will Engage in Trade.

Lisbon, July 1. — (Special.) —
County Commissioner Joseph H.
French, whose term expires September 1, will engage in the wool and grain business here.

A COAL SHIPMENT WITHOUT AN EQUAL

Over Eighteen Million Bushels
Started Down the River
On This Rise.

ALSO 40,000 TONS OF IRON

Towboat Captains Find Help Scarce.
Although They Offer Wages of $50
a Month And Board—Business
Brisk on the River.

As a result of the rise in the Ohio river and its tributaries caused by the recent downpour of rain, one of the largest and most important shipments of coal in the history of river interests in Pittsburg left that city
for southern points.

Of the two score boats owned by the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke company only two will remain in the harbor. They are the W.
O. Neil and the J. B. Finley.

Quite a large number of rivermen of this city left last evening for Pittsburg and passed down this morning on the boats. The towboat companies found it very difficult to obtain men
yesterday to man their boats, notwithstanding that they offered the highest wages. The wages are the best in the country, being $50 per month and board. Had it not been for several hundred men filing into the port from points down the river it would have been impossible to secure enough to let all the boats go out.

In the boats that passed this city today there were over 18,000,000 bushels of coal and 40,000 tons of iron. The shipment is unparalleled.

QUARTERS ENGAGED

Candidates and Politicians Making Arrangements For Congressional Convention.

Salem, July 1.—All those who have so far announced themselves as candidates for congress on the Republican ticket have secured rooms at the Greiner-Brainard hotel headquarters,
while at the convention July 23.

Saturday quarters were secured for
T. Harvey Smith, of Massillon, and J.
J. Grant, of Canton.

Col. John N. Taylor, of East Liverpool has engaged rooms at the Greiner-Brainard. He will occupy room
No. 6, and has also engaged the big parlor on the office floor. Colonel Taylor will come here as a delegate to the convention.

The announced candidates for the place in congress are Phelps, Smith
and Grant, of Stark; Speaker, of Columbiana, and Kennedy, of Mahoning.
Hon. I. B. Cameron has quarters at the hotel also, but if he is a candidate for congress he has not made the fact public yet.

FREE FOR ALL FIGHT

Pittsburg Excursionists in an Ugly
Scrap on Second Street.

A free-for-all fight took place yesterday evening on the corner of Second and Union streets, in which seven or eight Pittsburg excursionists were engaged and one of two East Liverpool parties. One of the Pittsburgers was knocked down, and after arising went after some of the crowd and succeeded in knocking down three of the party, the fight originating partially between themselves.

After the row had been suppressed Officer Dawson appeared, and on being informed about the matter ordered the Pittsburgers to cross the Ohio and they complied.

A TWO-SIDED DIVORCE SUIT

TRADICTORY STORIES.

Chances Are That the Suit of a Wells-ville Woman Will be Contested.

Lisbon, July 1. — (Special.) —
The divorce and alimony case of Mary E. Hallinger, of Wellsville, against Homer Hallinger, of Edinburg, Portage county, will probably be contested.
They were married in December, 1889,
and lived together at Wellsville four months, moving to Edinburg, where they lived with his foster parents.
She says that he attended, unaccompanied by her, places where young people congregated together, passing off as single and kept company with other women; that he provided nothing for her support and said he would not continue to live with her as her husband.

The wife also says he deserted her and went to Oklahoma, and has been absent for three years. She returned to Wellsville and has since lived with her parents. He claims that he provided a pleasant and satisfactory home
with his foster parents and at the time of marriage told her it was the best he could do; that she left him before their final separation when he was very sick and deserted him and went to her parents before he went to Oklahoma.

LAUGHLIN-WILSON

A Home Wedding at Which Well Known Young Couple
Were United.

A wedding which came as a surprise
to not a few friends was that of Mr.
Andrew D. Wilson, traveling salesman for the National Pottery company, and Miss Hattie Laughlin. The ceremony was performed yesterday at 3 o'clock
at the home of the bride's brother, Dr.
F. M. Laughlin, on Fifth street, by Rev. C. G. Jordan, in the presence of the immediate family and intimate friends of the contracting parties.

The bride as usual looked very pretty. Her gown was of white dotted Swiss, tastefully trimmed with lace, insertion and ribbon. She carried a large bunch of pink carnations.

The ceremony concluded the happy couple took the afternoon train for Cleveland, Detroit and Canada. The bride and groom were the recipients of many valuable presents.

Among the out-of-town guests present were: Mrs. C. Matthews, Millport, O.; Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Laughlin, Augusta, O.; Mrs. Dr. R. Laughlin, Steubenville, and Mrs. Mabel Laughlin, Georgetown, O.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will be at home to friends after two weeks at 197 Fifth street.

NON-SUPPORT SUIT

Settled By Husband And Wife Coming
to an Understanding And Agreement.

While he was returning from work
in Chester last evening John Wise,
who has been living for some time away from his wife and family, was arrested by Constable Powell and taken before Squire McCarron to answer to a charge preferred against him by Sarah, his wife, who alleged that he has been guilty of the non-support of their minor child. The squire was saved the trouble of pronouncing sentence on the man, as he and his spouse made a compromise. By it he agreed to pay her $5 down and the costs and $1.40 per week.

POLICE AND FIREMEN

Expect a Good Crowd And a Jolly
Time at the Ball
Tonight.

The firemen and policemen are jubilitant over the outlook for a jolly good time at Rock Springs park tonight, the occasion being the dance for which they have carefully made preparations. Several thousand tickets have been sold, and if half as many people are in attendance a grand time
is assured.

The best musical talent of the city has been secured and everything is in readiness to carry out the program without a hitch.

A BOMB AT THE CLAMBAKE.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, July 1.—Hon. James A.
Rice, of Canton, dropped a bomb
among the Democrats at the big clam-bake of the party in Columbus today.
His subject was "Cuss Words for the Enemy." He deprecated the use of bad language even toward the enemies of the party. Then he said that it was the party's weakness which has caused its defeat more than the enemy's strength.

Many of the untutored who found consolation in this sentiment applauded vociferously. Then came the part of his speech that hurt. He denounced in scathing language the alleged Democrats who deserted and betrayed the party in 1896 and who played into the hands of the enemy. Cuss words were too good for this class; political on-tracism should be visited upon them.

First of all, a political party to succeed, should stand for something, the inference being that the party rests on nothing firmer than thin air. Those who are entrusted with the leadership and management of the party should honestly and industriously seek to attain that something for which the party will stand.

He next attacked the Democrat who is such only for what the party is worth to him. "He is certain to want to be a leader if he cannot be a following," he said. "This fellow is always in evidence when he has no other to gratify or an ax to grind. He considers himself first, his party second.
Such men ought to be classed as the enemies of the party."

There are those who believe that the foregoing description fits John R.
McLean.

In almost the next breath Mr. Rice praised the work of Tom Johnson and called upon the members of the party to emulate him. McLean and Johnson are arch enemies. Mr. Rice, the blandest and most innocent man possible, said: "I believe in party harmony and want lots of it."

He drove his javelins into the endowments of the Gold Democrats. He was one of the 6,500,000 who voted for the principles of Democracy in 1896 and 1900 and holds to the judgment of millions, and was not troubled by the wailings of the few wise men of the east who hunger for leadership and control.

Mr. Rice's speech was very entertaining, but as a harmonizer it was a failure. The clam bake, instead of rowing the chasm, will widen it.

SOON IN OPERATION

Mine at Georgetown Will Shortly
Producing Black
Diamonds.

The vein of coal that has been discovered in the hills east of Georgetown
by a company headed by Beaver and Bu-falo, N. Y., capitalists will soon be developed, judging from present appearances. The company has been commenced the work of building a tunnel
and it will not be long until coal can be mined and loaded in the West. There is at present a large state land claim
from the entry to the mine on the side of the hill, but no cost has been thrown down it so far.

It will be remembered that several years ago there was a big fire in this mine. During a flood the entire wood work was washed away and several barges carried down, leaving the mine high water. After that the mine was allowed to remain idle until about a year ago when the present
company took the property and is now interested are proceeding to develop it
as fast as possible.

Cass McKinnon, who has served three years in the Philippines in Company M, Nineteenth regulars, arrived home yesterday, coming on the transport Kilpatrick to San Francisco. He did not like the service on account of the rations which were poor. The hottest engagement he was in was in Sampson's stronghold on Bohohe Island. He says he saw the water cure administered, and would not want to undergo the operation.

Mr. McKinnon was a former pottery worker, and his parents reside near Columbian park. He had a fine trip across the Pacific, and arrived June 16.

Drunken Row Saturday Night.

A drunken row occurred Saturday night in front of Neifinger's place on Mulberry street. During the fun some one threw stones at the saloon, and Officer Fisher appeared on the scene and arrested Irwin Gorrell. Gorrell put up a forfeit for his appearance in police court this evening. Warrants are out for two or three others of the party and as soon as they can be apprehended they will also be given a hearing. The saloon was but little damaged.

A Baby Badly Hurt.

Elmer, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Riley, was quite badly injured Saturday at their home on Ohio avenue. It is thought that the little one's hip has been dislocated.

NEW COAL COMPANY

Organized With $10,000 Capital, Soon to Open Mines at Irondale.

The Irondale Coal company has been organized at Niles by Cleveland, Youngstown, Niles and Irondale parties. The headquarters of the company will be at Niles. The capital stock is $10,000.

The company has leased the coal tittle owned by William Banfield, district manager of the American Tin Plate company, and will spend $2,000 in equipping and repairing the mine and tittle. New steel rails and new ties for the mine have been ordered and the work of repairing will commence this week. It is expected that coal will be shipped inside of 60 days. Kedgwick Head, an experienced mining engineer of Youngstown, will be superintendent of the coal works. As soon as everything is in readiness about 50 men will be placed at work in the mine.

A great deal of land has been leased by Irondale and Salineville parties and another company is talked of. As yet nothing definite has been decided upon.

The tittle at the mine of the Norris Mining & Manufacturing company at West Salisbury, about two miles north of Irondale, has been completed and the machinery is being placed. It is expected soon to be shipping coal.

BIG SEWER PIPE WORKS

The New Plant at Irondale Will Soon Start With 18 Kilns.

The East Ohio Sewer Pipe company, of Irondale, will complete its new plant in two weeks and begin the manufacture of sewer pipe. Twelve kilns are now building, six of which have been finished. Altogether, the factory will have about 18 kilns. The plant is equipped with two modern presses, and other machinery, pans, hoisters, engines, etc., are of the latest patterns. The company will employ about 175 men when started in full operation. This includes clay diggers, finishers, moulders, press hands and kiln and yard men.

This factory has the largest floor space of any sewer pipe plant in eastern Ohio, even larger than the Calumet at Elliottsville, which has always been conceded to be the largest works in the Ohio valley. Lewis McDaniel, formerly of East Liverpool, is the superintendent.

The Climate.

"Don't you think you have a very changeable climate?" said the stranger. "No," said the native. "It changes fast enough when it's pleasant, but when it's disagreeable it hangs on like grim death."—Washington Star.

A TRIBUTE TO M'KINLEY.

Tablet of Judge Anderson Unveiled in M. E. Church, in Washington. President Present.

Washington, June 30.—A small tablet of white marble bearing in letters of gold a brief statement of the life and deeds of William McKinley, the tribute of his friend, Judge Thomas H. Anderson, formerly of Ohio, but now a member of the District bench, was unveiled in the Metropolitan M. E. church here yesterday. The unveiling was attended with a simple ceremony, in the presence of some of those who had helped the dead president to execute the will of the people.

Well-known men added their tributes to the solemn melodies of the choir in making the occasion a memorial one. The American flag that concealed the tablet was drawn aside as the congregation sang with deep feeling, "Nearer, My God, to Thee." The tablet occupies a position on the north wall of the main auditorium, midway between the two entrances to the church.

President Roosevelt and Secretary Cortelyou were present. Addresses were made by Rev. Frank Bristol, D. D., pastor of the church; Senator Fairbanks, Representative Grosvenor and Representative Robert W. Taylor, of Ohio, who now represents the district in congress formerly represented by President McKinley.

The tablet is about three feet high by two feet wide, and is in the form of a shield. At the apex of the shield a small cross is carved, while at the bottom is the shield from the great seal of the United States. Beneath the cross are the words, "Nearer My God, to Thee." The main inscription is on the body of the shield. Below the border are the last words of the dead president—"Thy will, not ours, be done."

TRIBUTES TO DEAD MEMBERS.

House Session Sunday in Memory of Cummings and Otey.

Washington, June 30.—The house of representatives held a session yesterday to pay tribute to the memories of the late Representative Cummings, of New York, and the late Representative Peter J. Otey, of Virginia. By special direction of Secretary Moody the Marine band was in attendance in the lobby in the rear of the hall, and rendered an appropriate musical program. The widows and families of the deceased occupied the speaker's pew in the galleries, and delegations from Typographical Union No. 6, of New York; the Letter Carriers' association, and the New York Pilots' association came here to honor Mr. Cummings' memory. The public galleries were well filled.

The eulogies were exceedingly impressive, especially that led by Mr. Cannon, of Illinois, the veteran chairman of the appropriations committee, who paid a tribute to the heart to the lofty character and manly honesty of Mr. Cummings. Others also paid eulogies.

Speeches of eulogy were also made by certain members in memory of Mr. Otey.

TO CONVEY PAUNCEFOTE'S BODY.

Brooklyn Reached Annapolis, Yesterday—Expected to Sail Tuesday.

Annapolis, Md., June 30.—The battleship Brooklyn, which is to convey the remains of Lord Pauncefote to England, arrived here yesterday. The remains of the late British ambassador will arrive from Washington on Tuesday, July 1st.

An escort, consisting of two companies of marines from the Naval academy, and one company of marines, and two companies of blue jackets from the Brooklyn will meet the funeral train. All the officers stationed at the naval academy will also assemble at the railroad station and accompany the funeral party to the academy grounds. There will be no services here. A salute of 19 guns will be fired as the Standish, with the remains aboard, leaves the wharf. It is expected that the Brooklyn will sail at 6 p. m. tomorrow.

CLASSIC ENTRIES FOR AMERICAN DERBY.

Greatest of Western Races to Be Run at Chicago June 21—Abe Frank Is the Favorite.

The American Derby, to be run at Washington park, Chicago, June 21, will be the greatest event of the year in western horse circles. Turfmen everywhere have been looking forward to the running of this race, and the starters will carry large sums of money.

Abe Frank, G. C. Bennett's chestnut colt, still holds favorite in the advance betting and according to form should "turn the trick," but the uncertainty of horse racing has shown conclusively that the most favorite of favorites can go wrong when put to the final test, and some unheard of outsider may get first money just as did Alfred Featherstone's four-year-old chestnut mare Reina in the recent Brooklyn handicap.

A fine field will go to the post in the American Derby, and among those sure to give Abe Frank a stirring tussle are Clarence H. Mackay's Heno, who is now said to be in top notch form despite recent defeats; Green B. Morris' Old England, R. T. Wilson's Dixieline, Jacob Worth's Oom Paul, E. J. Baldwin's Cruzados, S. C. Hildreth's McChesney, J. G. Follansbee's Keynote, J. E. Madden's Pentecost and J. A. Drake's Wyeth and Rannels.

In the west McChesney and Cruzados are highly thought of by the "hot stove" circuit, but neither has been asked to display anything. Hildreth, who at the best is not communicative, says he is satisfied with McChesney, but knows no more than any one else how good the colt now is. He refuses to hurry him, although it is quite likely McChesney will be given a breezing before the Derby. Cruzados is receiving a world of touting, almost enough to kill off his chances, according to the precedent which has ruled recent Derbys.

One of the significant deals of recent occurrence was the purchase by Sam Hildreth of the Derby candidate Lord Quex from Albert Simons. Lord Quex has been raced and unless he gets too much of it will be well seasoned, and it was the seasoned youngsters that won the last two Derbys, horses lightly thought of, but courageous and able to stand the racking journey. Lord Quex, in addition, can run on any kind of a track.

There is another western horse that deserves a word, although he generally has been thought shy in the class which makes up a real Derby horse. That is Lucien Appleby, also under the care of the shrewd trainer Hildreth. Appleby ran second to Articulate through the mud at Worth recently and, carrying only six pounds less, 106 to 112, was beaten a length and a half in a mile and seventy yards journey. Appleby probably would be smothered by the speed in front of him on a fast track, but if the Washington park track should happen to be heavy, as it was in 1898 and less so in 1900, he might be worth pondering over.

The American Derby is a sweepstakes for three-year-olds; $25 to accompany the nomination; $225 additional to start; $20,000 added, of which $3,000 goes to the second and $2,000 to the third horse. A winner of a three-year-old stake of the value of $3,000 to carry three pounds; of two such stakes, or $5,000, five pounds; of three or more three-year-old stakes of the value of $3,000 each, seven pounds extra. Maidens are allowed seven pounds. This year's race has ninety-seven nominations.

Fat For Frying.

If, when you are frying fish or croquettes, the fat begins to froth, the temperature is too low. Finish cooking what you have in the pan, but before cooking any more reheat the fat until a blue smoke rises from it.

Cigar Ashes.

If you saved the ash of all the cigars you smoked, you would have consumed 1,600 before you had a pound of ash.

A Cooking Hint.

Salt pork is an excellent substitute for butter in sauteing almost any sort of food where butter might be used. Don't forget, too, that a few drops of olive oil for delicate frying is far better than butter at any price.

water from a skiff yesterday. Fred, the young son of Arthur Mountford, of , fell into the muddy river. The incident was quite unfortunate. At a time it seemed as if the boy would be washed out into the current, between the island and the Ohio shore.

It seems that all the water in the skiff flowed to the stern of the boat, and caused the skiff partially to sink. Mountford was thrown into the water as a result, but was rescued by James McKinnon, of St. George street, before he was thrown into the swift current.

Installed New Officers.

The East End court of the Tribe of Ben Hur met in the Protected Home circle hall on First avenue last evening for the purpose of installing the new officers elected a few weeks ago. Representative McClelland, of this order, who has been working in this district for several weeks, has finished his work and will within the next few days leave for his home at Canton.

The Union Is Growing.

Division No. 52, Street Railway Employees, of this city, held a short session in their rooms in the East End Saturday evening, but nothing but routine business was transacted. Three new members were obligated, two of whom are employed on the East Liverpool & Rock Springs road, while another was from the East Liverpool line. The membership of this local is larger at present than ever before.

An Electrician's Visit.

Harry Laughlin, one of the electricians at the power house of the Steubenville-Toronto street railway company, returned to Toronto yesterday evening after spending several days at the home of his parents in the East End. Mr. Laughlin was formerly employed on the street railways of this city as a motorman before he went with the new company.

Couple Busy at the Ferry.

Four couples were married at Smith's Ferry last Friday, and the peculiarity of the happy events was the fact that all four couples formed a merry wedding party, taking the same afternoon train for Pittsburg. Jumped the Track.

A freight car, while being pushed around the curve at the packing shed at the Laughlin No. 2 pottery yesterday, jumped the track, causing one truck to bury itself in the soft earth. It is likely the wreck crew from Wellsburg will be called out to replace the car, as its position is such that it would be a hard task for the regular shifting crew to do so.

Sewer Pipe Works Won't Close.

General Manager Thomas F. Anderson, of the East End sewer pipe works, this morning stated that the plant would be run practically all summer, and that only on July 4 would the plant close. NO MORE EIGHTHS OF BEER

Picnic Size Kegs Cannot Be Sold Except By Wholesalers.

Recently the brewers of Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia entered into a compact by which after July 1 they will sell no more kegs of the size called eights, four-gallon, or pony kegs.

Saloonkeepers will be unable to handle beer in less quantities than eight-gallon kegs. The saloonkeeper is allowed under the United States revenue laws to sell liquors or beer in quantities of less than five gallons and it will be necessary to take out a wholesaler's license to sell beer in the smallest packages which he can obtain after July 1, to wit, eight gallons. Failure to do so lays him liable to a fine of $100, to pay the wholesaler's license of $50, and a penalty of one-half the license, or $25, making a total of $175.

The brewers have decided to go entirely out of the four-gallon keg business because of the loss in co-operation. It has been their experience that the four-gallon kegs have been taken out by parties who go picnicking and on other such outings and not returned, and the loss from this source in the aggregate has been enormous.

Beginners' Course Decided Upon For the Sunday Schools.

In Sunday School Affairs, the Praise Given the Late B. F. Jacobs, of Chicago, in One of the Resolutions Adopted.

Denver, July 1.—The tenth triennial convention of the International Sunday School association had the last day of its sessions yesterday. The proceedings were in part:

The report of the auditing committee on the treasurer's report was adopted.

The calm in the convention was broken by the debate on the report of the resolutions committee, which provided for optional advanced and beginners' courses in the Sunday school. A substitute was adopted to the effect that the association was not prepared to adopt a series of advanced courses, but providing for a beginners' course.

A resolution on the death of B. F. Jacobs, of Chicago, formerly chairman of the executive committee, which referred to him as the greatest Sunday school worker the world had ever known, was adopted.

The report of the lesson committee, as amended by the resolutions adopted, was then adopted.

It was decided to have a commission make an eight-months' tour of the world in the interest of Sunday school work, the members to pay their own expenses.

KING CONTINUES TO GAIN.

Improvements Were So Marked That Night Bulletins Were Discontinued.

London, July 1.—The bulletin issued at Buckingham palace at 7 o'clock last evening said:

"The king has had a fairly comfortable day and the discomfort in the wound has been less.

"Treves, Laking, Barlow."

Later it was announced that in view of the king's improvement no further bulletins would be issued last night.

"At noon the following official statement was given out at the palace:

"There is no cause for alarm in the distress caused by dressing the wound. This occurs at least twice daily. The wound, which is of considerable depth, is dressed from the bottom, as it is essential that it should heal from within outward. The dressing causes his majesty considerable pain, which he has borne with great fortitude. In fact, his majesty's courage and patience call for the greatest admiration. The king was much benefited by the change to the couch yesterday, on which he stayed for a few hours. The electric fans have proved of great value in keeping down the temperature of the apartment. The queen is in constant attendance in the sick room, but the utmost quiet is enforced. The king occasionally sees his children, but the interviews are of short duration. No matters of state or business are allowed to be submitted to the king, who is also debarred from reading his correspondence. Neither Doctors Laking, Barlow nor Treves have left the palace since the operation, except for an occasional hour.

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase for 75c the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the treatment and cure of consumption and throat and lung troubles without losing its great popularity through all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds, perhaps, but for severe coughs, bronchitis, croup—and especially for consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the night and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. Tri-State and Other Concerns Merged With Manufacturers' Company.

Negotiations were closed yesterday for the absorption by the Manufacturers' Light and Heat company, of the control of the Tri-State Gas company and for the purchase of Relief Gas company, of Washington, Pa., and the Wetzel Natural Gas company, of West Virginia. The deal involves about $1,500,000, and will give the Manufacturers' company control of 400 producing gas wells and will make it the largest natural gas company in the country outside of the Philadelphia company.

The Tri-State Gas company is a West Virginia corporation formed in 1898 with 1,500,000 capital and a founded debt of $254,000. The company has property valued at $2,000,000 to $3,000,000, and furnishes gas to Pittsburg on the Southside, West Carnegie, Knoxville and McDonald; Wellsburg and New Cumberland, W. Va.; Steubenville, Toronto and East Liverpool, O. The company began paying dividends at the rate of 8 per cent in 1900, and is now paying 12 per cent. The other companies absorbed are smaller concerns.

FACTS NOT FICTION

A Plain Statement of a Bad Condition and a Cure That Never Fails.

Mr. Cyrus Hauselman, of No. 279 Sugar street, East Liverpool, O., says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are a fine medicine. It has done for me more to cure my old rheumatism than anything I ever took. The rheumatism had hung on for four or five years, and was all in the legs and shoulders. I could not sleep and at times could not move with the pain. I was told of the Nerve Pills and got them at Larkins' drug store, and they took hold finely, something nothing else ever did. ### Large Crowds Are Coming.

The biennial tournament of the Pittsburgh Bezirks Turnfest opened in the city today, and will close Saturday evening. The event gives promise of being the most largely attended that has been held in recent years. As yet, the local tournament will be a treat to those who have the affair in mind, judging from the way matters are now progressing.

It might properly be stated that the Turnfest started last evening when the local society gave a reception to its members and those of the visitors who came in on the late train. The Turner hall on Walnut street had been tastefully decorated for the event, the American colors illuminated with the colors of the Turners' society predominating. In the main hall last night the names of several visiting societies were placed on the walls, each society's name being printed on an American shield.

The following societies will be represented during the Turnfest: East Allegheny, Birmingham, Braddock, Pa.; Central, of Pa.; United, Monongahela; Steubenville; Johnstown, Monaca, Southside, Wheeling, Vorwaerts, Duquesne, Pa.; Mc. Oliver, McKeesport, Troy Hill, Lawrenceville, Jeannette, Pa.; Elmhurst, Homestead, Pa.; East Pittsburgh, Clearwater, Beaver Falls, Pa.; Allentown.

The foregoing societies compose the Pittsburgh district, and each society will have a large representation present before the end of the week. At noon today a special committee of the local society left for Pittsburgh to meet the eastern visitors, and they will return to the city on a special train that will leave Pittsburgh at an hour that will cause the train to arrive here at 7 o'clock. Immediately following the arrival of the train a torch light procession will be given in honor of the visitors over a route from Second street to Market, to Fifth, to Jefferson, Sixth, to Walnut. There the parade will disband and a reception to the new visitors will be given in the hall. Names and Manley's names were secured for the entertainment of the visitors, and they may be secured for other entertainment during the week.

The Turner hall has been tastefully decorated, and contains several banners upon which have been printed various pictures of the Turnverein. These have been placed in the assembly room, and with the other decorations present, a beautiful appearance.

One of the main features of the Turnfest is to be the Rollhofer's gymnastic exercises of Bavaria. They arrived in the city yesterday, and will be the main attraction of the German village at Columbian park during the week. Last evening this company entertained the hall on Walnut street, and their entertainment was most delightful. They will likely not appear at the park before tomorrow.

The original program as published has been altered much, and many new events have been added. The events will be given during the week. The Turners' society will not arrive until tomorrow, as the time for the commercial events, practically all of which will take place at Columbian park.

For the past two weeks many workers have been engaged at the park, preparing it for the events of the week, and their task was completed only a few days ago. Throughout the entire park several hundred light have been placed, many of which are among the trees and in the woods. Electricity is to be used for all light purposes.

Members of the Wheeling Turnverein are making preparations to go in today to East Liverpool, to participate in the district festival.

Prof. H. J. Arbner, of Wheeling, will accompany the Turners. He has been selected as one of the three judges in the singing competitions, which will be a feature of the turnfest. Prof. Arbner has been honored with this appointment five consecutive times, which is a rare distinction, because of the dissatisfaction always connected with the awarding of prizes in singing competitions.

CRAZY WOMAN ATTACKS CROWD

USES UMBRELLA TO PUT THEM
TO FLIGHT.

Prominent Citizens Scolded And Beaten By an Irate, Unknown Female.

A crazy woman at the railroad station this morning created quite a disturbance and at least three prominent men of this city were made to feel like 30 cents. The name of the woman could not be learned, as no one dared go near enough to her to find out. She first attracted attention by asking a crowd of gentlemen where she could get a cab that would take her out of the city. In reply one of the crowd told her that the next train would bear her to Dixmont.

"I don't want to go to Dixmont," she rejoined, "and I ain't any crazier than you are. I'll show you how to make fun of me. You have been following me around for four or five years, and I'll be darned if I don't make it warm for you right now."

With this she grasped her umbrella and made a dash at the crowd. The men separated instantaneously and in a second not one of them was in the depot. A few minutes later three of the men, having watched the train depart, started up the hill. They had forgotten the occurrence, and were surprised when the woman turned abruptly and commenced another tirade. She not only made a dash at them, but the end of her umbrella was brought forcibly in contact with the most dignified of the trio.

The scene following was indescribable. The injured man went hobbling away and never thought once of retaliating, knowing full well that a club in the hands of a woman is like unto a razor in the hands of a child.

The victims of the assault would not allow their names to be published, but one is a city official; another, a young councilman, and the third a member of the East Liverpool Ministerial association.

TRUANT OFFICER

Appointed By Board of Education And Routine Business Done.

At the meeting of the board of education last evening very little business was transacted. A number of bills were ordered paid; William Beardmore was appointed truant officer at a salary of $300 per year and the clerk was instructed to enter into a contract with the American School Furnishing company for the purchase of necessary desks.

Will Drill More Wells.

R. B. Brown, M. Haymaker, Mr. Pugh and F. E. Voder, of Pittsburgh, oil operators visiting the Fredericks town field yesterday, they having a well come in on the Stewart farm. These gentlemen, in connection with one or two East Liverpool operators, will drill two more wells in the same vicinity, and also put down a well on the George Hamilton farm near Fredericktown.

Died En Route Home.

Steubenville, July 1.—John McGuire, of this city, en route home from three years service as a soldier in the Philippines, died suddenly at Glenwood Springs, Col., on Saturday. He was 28 years old and had served in Company B, Nineteenth infantry.

Four Strangers Arrested.

Four strangers from Rochester, two of them being women, were arrested last night on Second street by Officer McDermott, for being drunk. They left for the city and were released.

DELAHEY'S HOME, TO WHICH THE FAMOUS BOER GENERAL HAS RETURNED.

Despite the fact that the home of Delarey, the Boer general, is located in a district almost every inch of which was several times fought over during the recent war, it was found to be practically unharmed when peace was announced. Delarey's farm is within a few miles of the spot from which he made the historic swoop upon Methuen's command resulting in the capture and subsequent magnanimous release of that ill-starred general. Indeed, Methuen's objective point at that time was Rooivantsfontein, about twenty miles from Delarey's home.

But Enjoyment Enough

TURNFEST AND BASEBALL

With the Attractions of the Parks
Will Keep the Crowds Pleasantly
Employed—Mayor Says Celebrants
Must Be Cautious.

Although no steps have been taken by the citizens as a whole to make a gala day of the Fourth, it will most certainly be one of unalloyed enjoyment to all, sports and fun of every type having been arranged.

As is customary the residences, business houses and streets will be adorned with the national emblem, and the entire city will bring vividly to mind the reason the day is so commemorated.

Probably the greatest demonstration will be witnessed at Columbian park, where masses of people will flock to enjoy and participate in the exercises of the Turners. All day long something will be going on at the park, and in anticipation many are making arrangements to spend the day there.

Rock Springs park will also be open to the public, and it is likely that the crowds will be attracted to that beautiful resort. The two ball games at West End park will draw immense crowds, and taking the entertainment as it is provided throughout the city, no person need leave the community for fear that he can find no enjoyment.

As a protection to the people Mayor Davidson will instruct the police to keep a close vigil on the smaller and indiscrete youths who usually insist on the shooting of dangerous fire-crackers on the streets. The mayor states that he does not wish to deprive the boys of their fun, but that they must be careful in the discharge of the powdered missiles, as the lives of many have been wiped out and hundreds have been maimed for life as the result of improper Fourth of July jollification.

Towboat Captains Find Help Scarce,
Although They Offer Wages of $50
a Month And Board—Business
Brisk on the River.

As a result of the rise in the Ohio river and its tributaries caused by the recent downpour of rain, one of the largest and most important shipments of coal in the history of river interests in Pittsburgh left that city for southern points.

Of the two score boats owned by the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke company only two will remain in the harbor. They are the W. W. O'Neil and the J. B. Finley.

Quite a large number of rivermen of this city left last evening for Pittsburgh and passed down this morning on the boats. The towboat companies found it very difficult to obtain men yesterday to man their boats, notwithstanding that they offered the highest wages. The wages are the best in the country, being $50 per month and board. Had it not been for several hundred men filing into the port from points down the river it would have been impossible to secure enough to let all the boats go out.

In the boats that passed this city today there were over 18,000,000 bushels of coal and 40,000 tons of iron. The shipment is unparalleled.

QUARTERS ENGAGED

Candidates and Politicians Making Arrangements For Congressional Convention.

Salem, July 1.—All those who have so far announced themselves as candidates for congress on the Republican ticket have secured rooms at the Greiner-Brainard hotel headquarters, while at the convention July 23.

Saturday quarters were secured for T. Harvey Smith, of Massillon, and J. J. Grant, of Canton.

Col. John N. Taylor, of East Liverpool has engaged rooms at the Greiner-Brainard. He will occupy room No. 6, and has also engaged the big parlor on the office floor. Colonel Taylor will come here as a delegate to the convention.

The announced candidates for the place in congress are Phelps, Smith and Grant, of Stark; Speaker, of Columbiana, and Kennedy, of Mahoning. Hon. I. B. Cameron has quarters at the hotel also, but if he is a candidate for congress he has not made the fact public yet.

FREE FOR ALL FIGHT

Pittsburg Excursionists in an Ugly

A free-for-all fight took place yesterday evening on the corner of Second and Union streets, in which seven or eight Pittsburg excursionists were engaged and one of two East Liverpool parties. One of the Pittsburgers was knocked down, and after arising went after some of the crowd and succeeded in knocking down three of the party.

After the row had been suppressed Officer Dawson appeared, and on being informed about the matter ordered the Pittsburgers to cross the Ohio and they complied.

Chances Are That the Suit of a Wells-
ville Woman Will be Contested.

Lisbon, July 1. — (Special.) — The divorce and alimony case of Mary E. Hallinger, of Wellsville, against Homer Halinger, of Edinburg, Portage county, will probably be contested. They were married in December, 1889, and lived together at Wellsville four months, moving to Edinburg, where they lived with his foster parents. She says that he attended, unaccompanied by her, places where young people congregated together, passing off as single and kept company with other women; that he provided nothing for her support and said he would not continue to live with her as her husband.

The wife also says he deserted her and went to Oklahoma, and has been absent for three years. She returned to Wellsville and has since lived with her parents. He claims that he provided a pleasant and satisfactory home with his foster parents and at the time of marriage told her it was the best he could do; that she left him before their final separation when he was very sick and deserted him and went to her parents before he went to Oklahoma.

Were United.

A wedding which came as a surprise to not a few friends was that of Mr. Andrew D. Wilson, traveling salesman for the National Pottery company, and Miss Hattie Laughlin. The ceremony was performed yesterday at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's brother, Dr. F. M. Laughlin, on Fifth street, by Rev. C. G. Jordan, in the presence of the immediate family and intimate friends of the contracting parties.

The bride as usual looked very pretty. Her gown was of white dotted Swiss, tastefully trimmed with lace, insertion and ribbon. She carried a large bunch of pink carnations.

The ceremony concluded the happy couple took the afternoon train for Cleveland, Detroit and Canada. The bride and groom were the recipients of many valuable presents.

Among the out-of-town guests present were: Mrs. C. Matthews, Millport, O.; Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Laughlin, Augusta, O.; Mrs. Dr. R. Laughlin, Steubenville, and Mrs. Mabel Laughlin, Georgetown, O.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will be at home to friends after two weeks at 197 Fifth street.

The squire saved the trouble of pronouncing sentence on the man, as he and his spouse made a compromise. By it he agreed to pay her $5 down and the costs and $1.40 per week.

A BOMB AT THE CLAMBAKE.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, July 1.—Hon. James A. Rice, of Canton, dropped a bomb among the Democrats at the big clam bake of the party in Columbus today. His subject was "Cuss Words for the Enemy." He deprecated the use of bad language even toward the enemies of the party. Then he said that it was the party's weakness which has caused its defeat more than the enemy's strength.

Many of the untirred who found consolation in this sentiment applauded vociferously. Then came the part of his speech that hurt. He denounced in scathing language the alleged Democrats who deserted and betrayed the party in 1896 and who played into the hands of the enemy. Cuss words were too good for this class; political ostracism should be visited upon them.

First of all, a political party to succeed, should stand for something, the inference being that the party rests on nothing firmer than thin air. Those who are entrusted with the leadership and management of the party should honestly and industriously seek to attain that something for which the party will stand.

He next attacked the Democrat who is such only for what the party is worth to him. "He is certain to want to be a leader if he cannot be a follower," he said. "This fellow is always in evidence when he has no work to do, to gratify or an axe to grind. He considers himself first, his party second. Such men ought to be classed as the enemies of the party."

There are those who believe that the foregoing description fits John R. McLean.

In almost the next breath Mr. Rice praised the work of Tom Johnson and called upon the members of the party to emulate him. McLean and Johnson are arch enemies. Mr. Rice, as blandest and most inoffensive as possible, said: "I believe in party harmony and want lots of it."

He drove his javelins into the sides of the Gold Democrats. He was one of the 650,000 who voted for the principles of Democracy in 1896. In 1900 and holds to the judgment of millions, and was not troubled by the wallings of the few wise men who east who hunger for leadership and control.

Mr. Rice's speech was very entertaining, but as a harmonizer it was a failure. The clam bake, instead of rowing the chasm, will widen it.

Producing Black
Diamonds.

The vein of coal that has been located in the hills east of Georgetown by a company headed by Beaver and Gafalo, N. Y., capitalists will soon be developed, judging from present appearances. The company has just completed the work of building a tunnel, and it will not be long until coal is mined and loaded in the cars. There is at present a large sale of coal from the entry to the mine on the side of the hill, but no coal has yet been thrown down it so far.

It will be remembered that several years ago there was a plan to develop this mine. During a flood the wooden work was washed away, and several barges carried down the river, and the high water, after the mine was allowed to remain idle about a year ago when the company took the property, the interested are proceeding as fast as possible.

MAY ADJOURN TODAY

House Adopted Conference Report on Philippine Bill, Last Night.

SENATE'S ACTION AWAITED.

House Worked Until a Late Hour Last Night—Assented to Charleston Exposition Appropriation, After Once Voting It Down.

Washington, July 1.—With final adjournment probable today the house worked under high pressure from noon yesterday until far into the night. As a preliminary several resolutions were adopted to grease the legislative wheels. The rule providing for the printing of conference reports before consideration was suspended until the end of the session, and a resolution was adopted making a motion to suspend the rules in order at any time. The house then got down to business.

The conference report on the Philippine civil government bill, which was considered the last obstacle in the way of adjournment, was adopted with a strong party vote, with the single exception of Mr. McCall, of Massachusetts, who voted with the Democrats. A partial report on the general deficiency appropriation bill was adopted, and after a prolonged fight the house, by a vote of 118 to 161, accepted the senate amendment to appropriate $500,000 for the Buffalo exposition, and then sent the bill back to conference. The senate amendments to appropriate $160,000 for the Charleston exposition and $1,000,000 to pay the Hawaiian fire-bombic plague awards were defeated. The former by a vote of 71 to 118. Subsequently, at the night session, the house reversed itself and assented to the senate amendment making an appropriation for the Charleston exposition.

A number of bills were passed under suspension of the rules, including the senate bill to allot lands in the Cherokee nation and to provide corporation laws for Alaska.

At the evening session the Dick militia bill, which is to be used as a stop gap for the remainder of the session while the house is waiting for conference reports, was taken up. The adjournment resolution was to be withheld until the conference report on the Philippine bill was adopted by the senate.

THE PHILIPPINE BILL.

Measure as Agreed Upon in Conference Yesterday.

Washington, July 1.—The Philippine civil government bill as finally agreed upon yesterday provides for a Philippine legislature of two houses, one the Philippine commission and the other an assembly elected by the natives, except the Moros and Pagans. But this legislature is not to be created until after a census has been taken and a condition of general peace and good order shall have prevailed for two years. The legislature is to elect two commissioners to represent the islands in Washington. The powers of the legislature are defined

Authority is given to issue bonds for the purchase of the friar lands and when purchased these become part of the public domain. The public lands are to be open to homesteaders, similar to the American system, and to prevent corporations from absorbing the lands corporations' holdings are limited to 1,024 hectares or 2,500 acres. Corporations also are stringently regulated in holding mining and agricultural lands. The money standard and the permanent money system is also postponed. Provision is made for subsidiary and minor coins.

Charges Not Substantiated.

Washington, July 1.—Postmaster General Payne, Senator Hanna and Civil Service Commissioner Garfield had a conference with the president yesterday regarding the political charges made by Representative Burton, of Ohio, and others against Collector Leach, at Cleveland. Mr. Garfield had just arrived from his home in Cleveland. The result of the conference was a conclusion that the charges against Mr. Leach and those mentioned in connection with him had not been substantiated, and that the collector should be reappointed.

ELECTRIC RAILWAYS SOLD.

Rumored There Is To Be Line From Cincinnati To Pittsburgh.

Huntington, W. Va., July 1.—The Camden Interstate Railway company, of this city, sold yesterday to a Pennsylvania syndicate all their electric lines in this city, Central City, Ceredo and Kenova, W. Va., Catelettsburg and Ashland, Ky., and Ironton, Ohio. The consideration was about two million dollars.

John Graham, Andrew McCandish, of Newville, and John J. Henry and William North, of Philadelphia, are the leaders of the syndicate. Senator Camden, of West Virginia, was the chief stockholder in the old company. It was rumored that this syndicate has in view the purchase of electric railways in other Ohio valley cities, the ultimate aim being to have a continuous line between Cincinnati and Pittsburgh. John Graham was elected president of the new company.

STOCK MARKET WAS CHEERFUL.

Money Market Was Quite Active, Yesterday—Curtailed Stock Operations Some.

New York, July 1.—The stock market reflected the recent prevailing tendency of speculative sentiment to lay greater stress upon encouraging developments and to ignore what appears to be unfavorable with an invincible cheerfulness. The money market became quite active yesterday and call loan rates ran up to 7 per cent under the influence of month-end demand for funds. This had the effect of curtailing operations in stocks to some extent, but forced non-appreciable liquidation.

The coalers responded to the expressions of confidence on the part of the operators that the coal strike is disintegrating. There is a belief in the financial district that the coal mine operators have been deferring active steps towards a resumption of mining until after the July 4 holidays, in the belief that the holiday period might aggravate a tendency to disorder. A buoyant recovery from recent depression in Colorado Fuel was attributed to manipulation or to a struggle for control among disaffected insiders. Sugar also made an unexpected rise, but the industrials generally were heavy. United States Steel stocks dropped back a fraction. Over capitalization, insufficient provision for working capital and exorbitant allowances to merger syndicates and the continually developing necessity for bond issues by the industrial combinations are subjects under constant discussion in Wall street. The immunity in stock values from harm on account of the flurry in the money market is attributed to the fact that the large speculative interests have provided themselves with time loans over the period of the July settlements. The market closed almost inanimate and steady.

Chronic Diarrhoea.

This disease is generally regarded as incurable, mainly for the reason that the remedies usually employed are ineffectual. That it can be cured, however, has been fully proven in many cases. The following tells of one of them: Mr. T. W. Greathouse, of Prattsburgh, Ga., says: "I had been suffering from chronic diarrhoea for seven years. Last year I began taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and it has entirely cured me. I had spent lots of money for doctors' medicine in the run of the seven years. If it had not been for this remedy I would have been dead now, and I feel that I can never say too much in its favor or recommend it too highly." Sold by Alvin H. Bulger, Druggist.

water from a skiff yesterday. Fred, the young son of Arthur Mountford, of fell into the muddy river. Mountford was quite unfortunate a time it seemed as if the boy would be washed out into the current, between the island and the Ohio shore.

It seems that all the water in the skiff flowed to the stern of the boat, and caused the skiff partially to sink. Mountford was thrown into the water as a result, but was rescued by James McKinnon, of St. George street, before he was thrown into the swift current.

Installed New Officers.

The East End court of the Tribe of Ben Hur met in the Protected Home circle hall on First avenue last evening for the purpose of installing the new officers elected a few weeks ago. Representative McClelland, of this order, who has been working in this district for several weeks, has finished his work and will within the next few days leave for his home at Canton.

The Union Is Growing.

Division No. 52, Street Railway Employees, of this city, held a short session in their rooms in the East End Saturday evening, but nothing but routine business was transacted. Three new members were obligated, two of whom are employed on the East Liverpool & Rock Springs road, while another was from the East Liverpool line. The membership of this local is larger at present than ever before.

An Electrician's Visit.

Harry Laughlin, one of the electricians at the power house of the Steubenville-Toronto street railway company, returned to Toronto yesterday evening after spending several days at the home of his parents in the East End. Mr. Laughlin was formerly employed on the street railways of this city as a motorman before he went with the new company.

Couple Busy at the Ferry.

Four couples were married at Smith's Ferry last Friday, and the peculiarity of the happy events was the fact that all four couples formed a merry wedding party, taking the same afternoon train for Pittsburg. A large throng of people were at the depot and they were saluted with showers of rice, old shoes and other indispensibles on such occasions.

Jumped the Track.

A freight car, while being pushed around the curve at the packing shed at the Laughlin No. 2 pottery yesterday, jumped the track, causing one truck to bury itself in the soft earth. It is likely the wreck crew from Wells-ville will be called out to replace the car, as its position is such that it would be a hard task for the regular shifting crew to do so.

Sewer Pipe Works Won't Close.

General Manager Thomas F. Anderson, of the East End sewer pipe works, this morning stated that the plant would be run practically all summer, and that only on July 4 would the plant close. The company has been sending some very large orders to the East End plant, and in doing this the plant is assured of a continuous run.

NO MORE EIGHTHS OF BEER

Picnic Size Kegs Cannot Be Sold Except By Wholesale-salers.

Recently the brewers of Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia entered into a compact by which after July 1 they will sell no more kegs of the size called eights, four-gallon, or pony kegs.

Saloonkeepers will be unable to handle beer in less quantities than eight-gallon kegs. The saloonkeeper is allowed under the United States revenue laws to sell liquors or beer in quantities of less than five gallons and it will be necessary to take out a wholesaler's license to sell beer in the smallest packages which he can obtain after July 1, to wit, eight gallons. Failure to do so lays him liable to a fine of $100, to pay the wholesaler's license of $50, and a penalty of one-half the license, or $25, making a total of $175.

The brewers have decided to go entirely out of the four-gallon keg business because of the loss in cooerage. It has been their experience that the four-gallon kegs have been taken out by parties who go picnicking and on other such outings and not returned, and the loss from this source in the aggregate has been enormous.

S. S. MEETING ENDS.

GREATEST WORKER EVER KNOWN

Denver, July 1.—The tenth triennial convention of the International Sunday School association had the last day of its sessions yesterday. The proceedings were in part:

The report of the auditing committee on the treasurer's report was adopted. The calm in the convention was broken by the debate on the report of the resolutions committee, which provided for optional advanced and beginners' courses in the Sunday school. A substitute was adopted to the effect that the association was not prepared to adopt a series of advanced courses, but providing for a beginners' course.

A resolution on the death of B. F. Jacobs, of Chicago, formerly chairman of the executive committee, which referred to him as the greatest Sunday school worker the world had ever known, was adopted.

The report of the lesson committee, as amended by the resolutions adopted, was then adopted.

It was decided to have a commission make an eight-months' tour of the world in the interest of Sunday school work, the members to pay their own expenses.

KING CONTINUES TO GAIN.

Improvements Were So Marked That Night Bulletins Were Discontinued.

London, July 1.—The bulletin issued at Buckingham palace at 7 o'clock last evening said:

"The king has had a fairly comfortable day and the discomfort in the wound has been less.

"Treves, Laking, Barlow."

Later it was announced that in view of the king's improvement no further bulletins would be issued last night.

At noon the following official statement was given out at the palace:

"There is no cause for alarm in the distress caused by dressing the wound. This occurs at least twice daily. The wound, which is of considerable depth, is dressed from the bottom, as it is essential that it should heal from within outward. The dressing causes his majesty considerable pain, which he has borne with great fortitude. In fact, has majesty's courage and patience call for the greatest admiration. The king was much benefited by the change to the couch yesterday, on which he stayed for a few hours. The electric fans have proved of great value in keeping down the temperature of the apartment. The queen is in constant attendance in the sick room, but the utmost quiet is enforced. The king occasionally sees his children, but the interviews are of short duration. No matters of state or business are allowed to be submitted to the king, who is also debarred from reading his correspondence. Neither Doctors Laking, Barlow nor Treves have left the palace since the operation, except for an occasional hour.

Caution!

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase for 75c the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the treatment and cure of consumption and throat and lung troubles without losing its great popularity through all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds, perhaps, but for severe coughs, bronchitis, croup—and especially for consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the night and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. Sold by all druggists in the civilized world.

NATURAL GAS DEAL

Tri-State and Other Concerns Merged With Manufacturers' Company.

Negotiations were closed yesterday for the absorption by the Manufacturers' Light and Heat company, of the control of the Tri-State Gas company and for the purchase of Relief Gas company, of Washington, Pa., and the Wetzel Natural Gas company, of West Virginia. The deal involves about $1,500,000, and will give the Manufacturers' company control of 400 producing gas wells and will make it the largest natural gas company in the country outside of the Philadelphia company.

The Tri-State Gas company is a West Virginia corporation formed in 1898 with 1,500,000 capital and a founded debt of $254,000. The company has property valued at $2,000,000 to $3,000,000, and furnishes gas to Pittsburg on the Southside, West Carnegie, Knoxville and McDonald; Wellsburg and New Cumberland, W. Va.; Steubenville, Toronto and East Liverpool, O. The company began paying dividends at the rate of 8 per cent in 1900, and is now paying 12 per cent. The other companies absorbed are smaller concerns.

FACTS NOT FICTION

A Plain Statement of a Bad Condition and a Cure That Never Fails.

Mr. Cyrus Hauselman, of No. 279 Sugar street, East Liverpool, O., says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are a fine medicine. It has done for me more to cure my old rheumatism than anything I ever took. The rheumatism had hung on for four or five years, and was all in the legs and shoulders. I could not sleep and at times could not move with the pain. I was told of the Nerve Pills and got them at Larkins' drug store, and they took hold finely, something nothing else ever did. The pain and stiffness are almost gone. I am feeling strong and get about and sleep well. It won't take many more to cure me completely."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine company, Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

MAY ADJOURN TODAY

House Adopted Conference Report on Philippine Bill, Last Night.

SENATE'S ACTION AWAITED.

House Worked Until a Late Hour Last Night—Assented to Charleston Exposition Appropriation, After Once Voting It Down.

Washington, July 1.—With final adjournment probable today the house worked under high pressure from noon yesterday until far into the night. As a preliminary several resolutions were adopted to grease the legislative wheels. The rule providing for the printing of conference reports before consideration was suspended until the end of the session, and a resolution was adopted making a motion to suspend the rules in order at any time. The house then got down to business.

The conference report on the Philippine civil government bill, which considered the last obstacle in the way of adjournment, was adopted by a strong party vote, with the exception of Mr. McCall, of Massachusetts, who voted with the Democrats. A partial report on the general deficiency appropriation bill was adopted, and after a prolonged fight the house, by a vote of 118 to 34, accepted the senate amendment to appropriate $500,000 for the Buffalo exposition, and then sent the bill back to conference. The senate amendments to appropriate $160,000 for the Charleston exposition and $1,000,000 to pay the Hawaiian fire-bombic plague awards were defeated, the former by a vote of 71 to 118. Subsequently, at the night session the house reversed itself and assented to the senate amendment making an appropriation for the Charleston exposition.

A number of bills were passed under suspension of the rules, including the senate bill to allot lands in the Cherokee nation and to provide corporation laws for Alaska. At the evening session the Dick militia bill, which is to be used as a stop gap for the remainder of the session while the house is waiting for conference reports, was taken up. The adjournment resolution was to be withheld until the conference report on the Philippine bill was adopted by the senate.

THE PHILIPPINE BILL.

Measure as Agreed Upon in Conference Yesterday.

Washington, July 1.—The Philippine civil government bill as finally agreed upon yesterday provides for a Philippine legislature of two houses, one the Philippine commission and the other an assembly elected by the natives, except the Moros and Pagans. But this legislature is not to be created until after a census has been taken and a condition of general peace and good order shall have prevailed for two years. The legislature is to elect two commissioners to represent the islands in Washington. The powers of the legislature are defined and an extended bill of rights set forth, the individual rights of citizens and their protection against unjust laws.

Authority is given to issue bonds for the purchase of the friar lands and when purchased these become part of the public domain. The public lands are to be open to homesteaders, similar to the American system, and to prevent corporations from absorbing the lands corporations' holdings are limited to 1,024 hectares or 2,500 acres. Corporations also are stringently regulated in holding mining and agricultural lands. The money standard and the permanent money system is also postponed. Provision is made for subsidiary and minor coins.

Charges Not Substantiated.

Washington, July 1.—Postmaster General Payne, Senator Hanna and Civil Service Commissioner Garfield had a conference with the president yesterday regarding the political charges made by Representative Burton, of Ohio, and others against Collector Leach, at Cleveland. Mr. Garfield had just arrived from his home in Cleveland. The result of the conference was a conclusion that the charges against Mr. Leach and those mentioned in connection with him had not been substantiated, and that the collector should be reappointed.

ELECTRIC RAILWAYS SOLD.

Rumored There Is To Be Line From Cincinnati To Pittsburg.

Huntington, W. Va., July 1.—The Camden Interstate Railway company, of this city, sold yesterday to a Pennsylvania syndicate all their electric lines in this city, Central City, Ceredo and Kenova, W. Va., Catlettsburg and Ashland, Ky., and Ironton, Ohio. The consideration was about two million dollars.

John Graham, Andrew McCandish, of Newville, and John J. Henry and William North, of Philadelphia, are the leaders of the syndicate. Senator Camden, of West Virginia, was the chief stockholder in the old company. It was rumored that this syndicate has in view the purchase of electric railways in other Ohio valley cities, the ultimate aim being to have a continuous line between Cincinnati and Pittsburg. John Graham was elected president of the new company.

STOCK MARKET WAS CHEERFUL.

New York, July 1.—The stock market reflected the recent prevailing tendency of speculative sentiment to lay greater stress upon encouraging developments and to ignore what appears to be unfavorable with an invincible cheerfulness. The money market became quite active yesterday and call loan rates ran up to 7 per cent under the influence of month-end demand for funds. This had the effect of curtailing operations in stocks to some extent, but forced non-appreciable liquidation.

The coalers responded to the expressions of confidence on the part of the operators that the coal strike is disintegrating. There is a belief in the financial district that the coal mine operators have been deferring active steps towards a resumption of mining until after the July 4 holidays, in the belief that the holiday period might aggravate a tendency to disorder. A buoyant recovery from recent depression in Colorado Fuel was attributed to manipulation or to a struggle for control among disaffected insiders. Sugar also made an unexpected rise, but the industrial generally were heavy. United States Steel stocks dropped back a fraction. Over capitalization, insufficient provision for working capital and exorbitant allowances to merger syndicates and the continually developing necessity for bond issues by the industrial combinations are subjects under constant discussion in Wall street. The immunity in stock values from harm on account of the flurry in the money market is attributed to the fact that the large speculative interests have provided themselves with time loans over the period of the July settlements. The market closed almost inanimate and steady.

Chronic Diarrhoea.

This disease is generally regarded as incurable, mainly for the reason that the remedies usually employed are ineffectual. That it can be cured, however, has been fully proven in many cases. The following tells of one of them: Mr. T. W. Greathouse, of Prattsburgh, Ga., says: "I had been suffering from chronic diarrhoea for seven years. Last year I began taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and it has entirely cured me. I had spent lots of money for doctors' medicine in the run of the seven years. If it had not been for this remedy I would have been dead now, and I feel that I can never say too much in its favor or recommend it too highly." Sold by Alvin H. Bulger, Druggist.

FOR NERVOUS FOLKS.

Systematic Rest, Massage and Proper Diet Will Work Wonders.

Schule, writing on mental diseases, asks, "Is our civilization to blame for this neurotic condition?" and the answer is in the affirmative. How can nutrition prosper in the body where malnutrition holds full sway? And how can people be happy and healthy when worry dominates their lives? For in this human being the lower officers of the nervous hierarchy draw their very breath at the bidding of the higher powers, and the relation is very reciprocal, for to keep the brain healthy the unconscious nervous functions must be kept in good shape, proper activities alternating with wisely arranged periods of repose.

Just as soon as one notices the approach of nervous irritability systematic nerve rest will shorten an attack, and by rest I mean to have the patient go to bed and have massage. The amount of exercise undergone in a good scientific massage is equal to a walk of two or three miles a day, and it goes without saying that such passive exercise should increase the appetite, and the food ingested and enjoyed will be digested and assimilated. I use the word "enjoy" deliberately, because there are some nervous invalids who cannot enjoy their food unless in solitude. In addition to the massage I would recommend salt rubs, which are very easy to give. Have a saturated solution of common table salt. Rub the body briskly, especially from the spine outward toward the sides of the body and as soon as the skin is well reddened wash off with moderately cool water, and the chances are all in favor of restful condition. In case persons suffer from cold feet at night I would advise the bathing of the feet in cold water before going to bed and having a hot water bag always at hand.

Lettuce, celery, spinach, onions, are all vegetables especially valuable to a person of nervous temperament, and milk hot or cold is invaluable.—Pillgrim.

SCIENCE SIFTINGS.

Sound moves 1,142 feet per second, light 192,000 miles a second and electricity 283,000 miles a second.

The rotation of a waterspout at the surface of the sea has been estimated as 354 miles an hour, or nearly six miles a minute.

It is probable that the temperature of the moon's surface at its midday is 750 degrees F. The drop at night is probably 1,000 degrees, to 250 degrees below.

Crystallized nitrogen is one of the greatest chemical curiosities. By cooling nitrogen gas down to 367 degrees below the freezing point and then allowing it to expand solid, snowlike crystals are formed.

THE COPYRIGHT LAW.

First Measure Passed For the Protection of Literary Property.

April 10, 1710, is a noteworthy date in the history of literature. On that day came into operation an act "for the encouragement of learning by vesting the copies of printed books in the authors or purchasers of such copies." This was the first measure passed for the protection of literary property. The word "copyright," according to Dr. Murray, was not used before 1767. In the preamble of the bill, which is said to have been drafted by Dean Swift, the necessity of a measure "to enable learned men to write useful books" is dwelt upon. By its provisions two terms of copyright, each of fourteen years, were created for all future publications, one term to follow immediately upon the other if the author were still living at the expiration of the first term.

According to a subsidiary clause, if any publisher issued a book at a price judged too high by certain "discreet persons" he was liable to a penalty. The "discreet persons" included, among others, the archbishop of Canterbury, the lord chancellor and the vice chancellors of Oxford and Cambridge. On them devolved the somewhat delicate task of fixing the book's value. This clause was repealed in 1793, but the term of copyright remained unaltered until 1842, when it was extended to the life of the author and seven years, or forty-two years from the date of publication, whichever may prove longer. England was the first country thus to protect the rights of authors. France followed suit in 1793, but in Germany no copyright law existed until 1870.—London News.

Not Much of a Case.

It is stated that not much of a case can be made against the Rock Springs officials and employees from the fact that the corporation line only extends to the front fence of the park. Tickets were sold Sunday at a point part way up the steps to avoid any liability in this regard. Should the case be pushed it will be heard in the Hancock county circuit court.

A Prolonged Strike.

The strike which has existed for almost a year at the Marquet Coal company's mines back of New Cumberland, is still unsettled, and both miners and company remain as arbitrary as when the strike first began. It is argued that the Civic Federation should be called upon, since they have exhausted all efforts to get together.

HORSEHAIR SNAKES.

Peculiar Habits of These Threading Little Serpents.

The "horsehair snakes" are small, flesh colored mites which live principally in stagnant water. After going through various transformations they come to the surface of the water in the shape of very slender, purplish looking threads. When they reach this last stage, they leave the water and work their way up the stalks and leaves of aquatic plants. When opportunity affords, they attach themselves to the feet, legs, wings and other parts of larger insects, often, as one authority states, creeping under the wing case of beetles. In the case of the cricket, katydid, grasshopper and other insects of that ilk, whose legs are hollow, the tiny horsehair takes the advantage and creeps up the hollows into the very vitals.

This accounts for the fat and clumsy condition of some individuals of the above named species, single specimens of the cricket having been caught with over two dozen of these threadlike "snakes" attached to and inside of their bodies. After heavy rains, which frequently drown crickets and katydids which are weighted down by these parasites, the "horsehair snake" emerges from the carcass of the insect a full fledged miniature serpent. In this mature state he is the delight of the curiosity seeker and a mine of study to those who delight to delve in nature's bypaths. Those which have been fortunate enough not to have been carried very far from water by the insects which they encumbered during life make their way back to the ponds to lay their eggs. They then wrap themselves around the eggs, which soon hatch into the little flesh colored mites mentioned in the opening. About this time the parent "snake" dies to make room for its progeny.

What the Witness Saw.

"Not exactly," said the witness, with considerable hesitation. "I mean to swear that I saw the prisoner with a coal scuttle in his hands."

"In what attitude was he then?" asked the presiding judge.

"Well, now, since your lordship has asked, I'll tell the truth. The prisoner was lying down with the coal scuttle over his head and his wife on the top of it."

The jury returned a verdict of not guilty.—London Chronicle.

AN ILLUSTRATED VILLAGE.

Little Swiss Town One of the Quaintest in Europe.

When next you go to the Lake of Geneva, by all means pay a visit to the little known village of St. Legier, near by, on the road between Vevey and Blonay, one of the quaintest villages in Europe and one of the proudest on account of its extraordinary adornments. St. Legier and the adjoining village of La Chiesaz are nothing more or less than illustrated villages. They are as profusely illustrated as the modern magazine, for nearly all the houses bear on their outside walls some striking picture or comical caricature from the brush of a great man in the village, M. Alfred Beguin, a painter of local renown and not unknown in Paris, says Pearson's Magazine.

A house in St. Legier has no use for a signboard to tell the world that it is an inn, a cycle shop, a forge or a dairy. M. Beguin's picture does that. On a stable wall he draws a picture of a spirited runaway horse knocking down men as he leaps for freedom; on the white wall of the little village forge are pictures of men making horseshoes for dear life and shoeing a frisky steed; on the wall of the dairy a dairy maid balances a pail of milk on her head, while scenes of local life, as pictures of the annual summer exodus to the mountain pastures with the cows and goats, and caricatures of the local bigwigs make a bright picture gallery of the village. M. Beguin lives in one of the most imposing houses in St. Legier, whence he obtains a full view of the crooked little village street and of the Dent du Jaman towering up in the distance. For many years past he has amused himself by painting the houses, and in the first place he acquired most of his skill and boldness in painting in this way.—Detroit Free Press.

POTTERY NEWS

In terms that could not be misunderstood, Thomas Price, general manager of the Union potteries, who was in the city today, denied the statement published in a Toronto paper last evening to the effect that he had advised the officials of the Brotherhood last week that the Union Potteries company would stand by the demands that had been made to the manufacturers last week by the operatives. ## Our Grape Phosphate

If there is one best drink at our fountain, and we think there is, the above is its name.

To drink it is to praise it. We can not tell you how fine this Grape Phosphate really is.

You must taste it, sip it, drink it slowly, to be able to fully appreciate its qualities.

It is made differently, served differently, and it tastes differently than any Grape Phosphate you have ever drank.

FOR NERVOUS FOLKS.

Systematic Rest, Massage and Proper Diet Will Work Wonders.

Schule, writing on mental diseases, asks, "Is our civilization to blame for this neurotic condition?" and the answer is in the affirmative. How can nutrition prosper in the body where malnutrition holds full sway? And how can people be happy and healthy when worry dominates their lives? For in this human being the lower officers of the nervous hierarchy draw their very breath at the bidding of the higher powers, and the relation is very reciprocal, for to keep the brain healthy the unconscious nervous functions must be kept in good shape, proper activities alternating with wisely arranged periods of repose.

Just as soon as one notices the approach of nervous irritability systematic nerve rest will shorten an attack, and by rest I mean to have the patient go to bed and have massage. The amount of exercise undergone in a good scientific massage is equal to a walk of two or three miles a day, and it goes without saying that such passive exercise should increase the appetite, and the food ingested and enjoyed will be digested and assimilated. I use the word "enjoy" deliberately, because there are some nervous invalids who cannot enjoy their food unless in solitude. In addition to the massage I would recommend salt rubs, which are very easy to give. Have a saturated solution of common table salt. Rub the body briskly, especially from the spine outward toward the sides of the body and as soon as the skin is well reddened wash off with moderately cool water, and the chances are all in favor of restful condition. In case persons suffer from cold feet at night I would advise the bathing of the feet in cold water before going to bed and having a hot water bag always at hand.

Lettuce, celery, spinach, onions, are all vegetables especially valuable to a person of nervous temperament, and milk hot or cold is invaluable.—Pillgrim.

SCIENCE SIFTINGS.

The amount of blood in the human body is one-thirteenth of the body weight.

Sound moves 1,142 feet per second, light 192,000 miles a second and electricity 283,000 miles a second.

The rotation of a waterspout at the surface of the sea has been estimated as 354 miles an hour, or nearly six miles a minute.

The sun's light is equal to 5,563 wax candles at one foot from the eye. It would take 800,000 full moons to equal cloudless sunshine.

It is probable that the temperature of the moon's surface at its midday is 750 degrees F. The drop at night is probably 1,000 degrees, to 250 degrees below.

Vesta is the only one of the smaller planets which can be seen with the naked eye. Its diameter is only 300 miles and its whole surface but one-ninth that of Europe.

THE COPYRIGHT LAW.

First Measure Passed For the Protection of Literary Property.

April 10, 1710, is a noteworthy date in the history of literature. On that day came into operation an act "for the encouragement of learning by vesting the copies of printed books in the authors or purchasers of such copies." This was the first measure passed for the protection of literary property. The word "copyright," according to Dr. Murray, was not used before 1707. In the preamble of the bill, which is said to have been drafted by Dean Swift, the necessity of a measure "to enable learned men to write useful books" is dwelt upon. By its provisions two terms of copyright, each of fourteen years, were created for all future publications, one term to follow immediately upon the other if the author were still living at the expiration of the first term.

According to a subsidiary clause, if any publisher issued a book at a price judged too high by certain "discreet persons" he was liable to a penalty. The "discreet persons" included, among others, the archbishop of Canterbury, the lord chancellor and the vice chancellors of Oxford and Cambridge. On them devolved the somewhat delicate task of fixing the book's value. This clause was repealed in 1739, but the term of copyright remained unaltered until 1842, when it was extended to the life of the author and seven years, or forty-two years from the date of publication, whichever may prove longer. England was the first country thus to protect the rights of authors. France followed suit in 1793, but in Germany no copyright law existed until 1870.—London News.

It is stated that not much of a case can be made against the Rock Springs officials and employees from the fact that the corporation line only extends to the front fence of the park. ## A Prolonged Strike.

The strike which has existed for almost a year at the Marquet Coal company's mines back of New Cumberland, is still unsettled, and both miners and company remain as arbitrary as when the strike first began. It is argued that the Civic Federation should be called upon, since they have exhausted all efforts to get together.

HORSEHAIR SNAKES.

Peculiar Habits of These Threading Little Serpents.

The "horsehair snakes" are small, flesh colored mites which live principally in stagnant water. After being through various transformations they come to the surface of the water in the shape of very slender, purplish looking threads. When they reach this last stage, they leave the water and work their way up the stalks and leaves of aquatic plants. When opportunity affords, they attach themselves to the feet, legs, wings and other parts of larger insects, often, as one authority states, creeping under the wing case of beetles. In the case of the cricket, katydid, grasshopper and other insects of that ilk, whose legs are hollow, the tiny horsehair takes the advantage and creeps up the hollows into the very vitals.

This accounts for the fat and clumsy condition of some individuals of the above named species, single specimens of the cricket having been caught with over two dozen of these threadlike "snakes" attached to and inside of their bodies. After heavy rains, which frequently drown crickets and katydids which are weighted down by these parasites, the "horsehair snake" emerges from the carcass of the insect a full fledged miniature serpent. In this mature state he is the delight of the curiosity seeker and a mine of study to those who delight to delve in nature's bypaths. Those which have been fortunate enough not to have been carried very far from water by the insects which they encumbered during life make their way back to the ponds to lay their eggs. They then wrap themselves around the eggs, which soon hatch into the little flesh colored mites mentioned in the opening. About this time the parent "snake" dies to make room for its progeny.

What the Witness Saw.

"Not exactly," said the witness, with considerable hesitation, "I mean to swear that I saw the prisoner with a coal scuttle in his hands."

"In what attitude was he then? asked the presiding judge.

"Well, now, since your lordship has asked, I'll tell the truth. The prisoner was lying down with the coal scuttle over his head and his wife on the top of it."

Little Swiss Town One of the Quaintest in Europe.

When next you go to the Lake of Geneva, by all means pay a visit to the little known village of St. Legier, near by, on the road between Vevey and Blonay, one of the quaintest villages in Europe and one of the proudest on account of its extraordinary adornments. St. Legier and the adjoining village of La Chiesaz are nothing more or less than illustrated villages. They are as profusely illustrated as the modern magazine, for nearly all the houses bear on their outside walls some striking picture or comical caricature from the brush of a great man in the village, M. Alfred Beguin, a painter of local renown and not unknown in Paris, says Pearson's Magazine.

A house in St. Legier has no use for a signboard to tell the world that it is an inn, a cycle shop, a forge or a dairy. M. Beguin's picture does that. On a stable wall he draws a picture of a spirited runaway horse knocking down men as he leaps for freedom; on the white wall of the little village forge are pictures of men making horseshoes for dear life and shoeing a frisky steed; on the wall of the dairy a dairy maid balances a pail of milk on her head, while scenes of local life, as pictures of the annual summer exodus to the mountain pastures with the cows and goats, and caricatures of the local bigwigs make a bright picture gallery of the village. M. Beguin lives in one of the most imposing houses in St. Legier, whence he obtains a full view of the crooked little village street and of the Dent du Jaman towering up in the distance. For many years past he has amused himself by painting the houses, and in the first place he acquired most of his skill and boldness in painting in this way.—Detroit Free Press.

ASSAULT IN SENATE.

THREATENED THE INDIANIAN.

Reported to Have Seized Him by the Throat—This Beveridge Denied. Hoosier Senator Refused to Retract a Statement.

Washington, July 1.—Senator Bailey, of Texas, assaulted Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, last night, just after the senate adjourned from executive session. The Texas senator was dragged away and separated from his opponent by some of those about the senate. He was very angry and threatened severe harm to the Indiana senator.

The episode was the result of a heated controversy which the two senators had during the afternoon, when Senator Beveridge had said that Senator Bailey had made "an unwarranted attack" on Solicitor Penfield, of the state department. In executive session Mr. Beveridge, like other senators who smoke, lighted a cigar and took a seat on the Republican side. He was still sitting there when the senate adjourned. Senator Bailey crossed the aisle and walked through the seats until he was facing Senator Beveridge.

"Beveridge," he said, "I don't want to have any trouble with you, but I want you to withdraw those words which charge me with making an unwarranted attack upon Penfield."

Didn't Intend to Insult Bailey.

"I didn't intend to insult you," replied Senator Beveridge, "and there is nothing in my language that you could consider offensive."

"I don't allow any one to say that I libel a man, and that is what you do in making the charge. Now, if you won't withdraw the words when I ask you, I'm going to make you withdraw them."

Senator Bailey had been getting more and more angry and excited as he talked. He had been sitting down part of the time or leaning against the desk immediately in front of Senator Beveridge. The latter, in reply to Senator Bailey's last remark, still remaining in his chair, said: "I repeat that I did not intend to insult you and that I have nothing to retract."

Grabbed Beveridge by the Throat.

As those words were uttered Senator Bailey threw himself upon Senator Beveridge, who is a man hardly up to the average in physique, and seized him by the throat with both hands. The rush was so sudden and fierce that the chair in which Mr. Beveridge was sitting was pushed back against a desk and the desk was toppled over. Before the assault could go any further senators who had been sitting near had moved up between the desks. Senator Hansbrough, of North Dakota, seized Senator Bailey by one arm and Senator Spooner seized the other. The Texas senator is a powerful man and it was with great difficulty that the two senators were able to drag him away from Senator Beveridge, and when they succeeded a part of the Indiana senator's neckwear was ripped and torn away in the vigorous grasp of Senator Bailey. Senator Bacon, of Georgia, and Barney Layton, assistant doorkeeper, came quickly forward and assisted in pulling the Texas senator further away. Senator Bailey meanwhile struggling to get free and lunging toward Senator Beveridge. As he was removed a little distance he was heard to utter something that sounded like a threat about killing.

Bailey Refused to Apologize.

Without further effort, however, he walked away when Senator Bacon urged him to be quiet and led him toward the Democratic side. Senator Bacon engaged Senator Bailey in conversation for some time, advising him to cool down. Senator Spooner also went across the aisle and discussed the matter with the Texas senator, urging him to apologize, and, if possible, fix it up at once, but Senator Bailey refused all such proffers, declaring that Senator Beveridge had insulted him in the senate and that he had taken the only course left, as the Indiana senator had refused to withdraw his remarks.

Senator Beveridge remained in the chamber for some little time and continued to smoke his cigar. He remarked to those who spoke to him on the subject that it did not amount to anything. He made no effort to resist or resent the attack made on him. In fact, the whole thing was over in a very brief interval before much resistance could have been offered.

Beveridge Expressed Regret.

When Mr. Beveridge was asked last night if he had any statement to make regarding the assault committed on him by Mr. Bailey, he expressed great regret over what had occurred and said he had no personal resentment over the matter. The conversation between them immediately before the trouble, Mr. Beveridge said, was substantially the same as that which had occurred in the senate chamber regarding the attack on Judge Penfield, who is an Indiana man, except that on his (Beveridge's) part it was much milder in tone. Mr. Beveridge said that he was not excited, but remained cool and collected, and expressed to Mr. Bailey his wish that their relations might continue agreeable.

Mr. Beveridge denied that he had been choked by Mr. Bailey. According to his version the Texas senator had made a lunge at him, but his arm was caught by Senator Spooner before the threatened blow landed.

Bailey criticized the state department for its handling of the case of an American citizen, Dr. Scott, and reflected on the competency of Judge Penfield, solicitor of the department. Mr. Beveridge characterized the words of the Texas senator as "unwarranted attack." This characterization Mr. Bailey regarded as an insult and demanded that the Indiana senator withdraw his words.

Mr. Beveridge declined to withdraw them, unless Mr. Bailey first withdrew his language in respect to Solicitor Penfield, although he disclaimed any intention of insulting Mr. Bailey.

The trouble grew out of a resolution offered by Mr. Bailey, calling for the papers in a Mexican mining case, in which he maintained Dr. Scott had been unfairly treated, not only by the Mexican courts, but also by the American ambassador, Mr. Clayton and the officials of the state department. Mr. Bailey declared Ambassador Clayton was either incompetent or dishonest, and his remarks led to some tart rejoinders.

Elkins Spoke For Amendment.

Early in the session Mr. Elkins, of West Virginia, delivered an earnest speech in favor of annexation of Cuba, maintaining that it would be in the best interests of both countries.

Mr. Elkins' remarks drew a sharp fire from Mr. Platt, of Connecticut, and Mr. Hanna, of Ohio, who deprecated any annexation proposition at this time, and urged that the United States ought to be sensible to its obligations to the civilized world, if not to Cuba. After a lively colloquy, in which General Wood was criticized by inference, for using Cuban funds to advance the reciprocity propaganda, Mr. Elkins' resolution for an annexation was referred to the Cuban relations committee.

Among the many bills passed was one giving Rear Admiral Schley the pay and allowance of a rear admiral on the active list in the navy.

ROUTE UP THE RIVER

Wabash Begins Suit for Appropriation of Land at Steubenville.

Steubenville, July 1.—The Steubenville & Toronto Railway company, which is the company organized for the purpose of extending the Wabash railroad from this city to Toronto, commenced suit against Elizabeth T. Sarraff and Caroline Oliver in probate court yesterday to appropriate land belonging to the Turnbull estate near the Hartje paper mills in the north end of this city.

The petition filed by the new company gives the first intimation throwing any light on the route to be followed in extending the railroad through the north end of the city. As the strip of ground is described as being located from Logan street north to the lands of Mary Salmon, between the C. & P. railroad tracks and low water mark of the Ohio river, it would seem to be the intention of the company to build the new railroad along the river bank outside the C. & P. tracks.

The plaintiff says the C. & P. railroad company and the Pennsylvania company claim to have some title to the property and asks that they be required to set up such claim. The case has been set for preliminary hearing on Monday, July 14.

Valuable Horse Hurt.

Joseph McMillen's fine pacing horse met with an accident this morning which renders it probable that it is permanently maimed. It broke away from its hostler in Dewdrop alley, having become frightened, and started on a run down the alley. It collided with an old wagon, one of the shafts striking its right shoulder and penetrating the flesh for at least six inches. The strength of two men were required to extricate the shaft.

Which is wiser—to have confidence in the opinions of your fellow citizens or depend on statements made by utter strangers? Read this:

I thought it would wear off, but as it did not, but grew worse, I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy, and took them. The result was the pain soon left me, and I am all right again."

ASSAULT IN SENATE.

THREATENED THE INDIANIAN.

Reported to Have Seized Him by the Throat—This Beveridge Denied. Hoosier Senator Refused to Retract a Statement.

Washington, July 1.—Senator Bailey, of Texas, assaulted Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, last night, just after the senate adjourned from executive session. The Texas senator was dragged away and separated from his opponent by some of those about the senate. He was very angry and threatened severe harm to the Indiana senator.

The episode was the result of a heated controversy which the two senators had during the afternoon, when Senator Beveridge had said that Senator Bailey had made "an unwarranted attack" on Solicitor Penfield, of the state department. In executive session Mr. Beveridge, like other senators who smoke, lighted a cigar and took a seat on the Republican side. He was still sitting there when the senate adjourned. Senator Bailey crossed the aisle and walked through the seats until he was facing Senator Beveridge.

"Beveridge," he said, "I don't want to have any trouble with you, but I want you to withdraw those words which charge me with making an unwarranted attack upon Penfield."

"I didn't intend to insult you," replied Senator Beveridge, "and there is nothing in my language that you could consider offensive."

"I don't allow any one to say that I libel a man, and that is what you do in making the charge. Now, if you won't withdraw the words when I ask you, I'm going to make you withdraw them."

Senator Bailey had been getting more and more angry and excited as he talked. He had been sitting down part of the time or leaning against the desk immediately in front of Senator Beveridge. The latter, in reply to Senator Bailey's last remark, still remaining in his chair, said: "I repeat that I did not intend to insult you and that I have nothing to retract."

Grabbed Beveridge by the Throat.

As those words were uttered Senator Bailey threw himself upon Senator Beveridge, who is a man hardly up to the average in physique, and seized him by the throat with both hands. The rush was so sudden and fierce that the chair in which Mr. Beveridge was sitting was pushed back against a desk and the desk was toppled over. Before the assault could go any further senators who had been sitting near had moved up between the desks. Senator Hansbrough, of North Dakota, seized Senator Bailey by one arm and Senator Spooner seized the other. The Texas senator is a powerful man and it was with great difficulty that the two senators were able to drag him away from Senator Beveridge, and when they succeeded a part of the Indiana senator's neckwear was ripped and torn away in the vigorous grasp of Senator Bailey. Senator Bacon, of Georgia, and Barney Layton, assistant doorkeeper, came quickly forward and assisted in pulling the Texas senator further away. Senator Bailey meanwhile struggling to get free and lunging toward Senator Beveridge. As he was removed a little distance he was heard to utter something that sounded like a threat about killing.

Bailey Refused to Apologize.

Without further effort, however, he walked away when Senator Bacon urged him to be quiet and led him toward the Democratic side. Senator Bacon engaged Senator Bailey in conversation for some time, advising him to cool down. Senator Spooner also went across the aisle and discussed the matter with the Texas senator urging him to apologize, and, if possible, fix it up at once, but Senator Bailey refused all such proffers, declaring that Senator Beveridge had insulted him in the senate and that he had taken the only course left, as the Indiana senator had refused to withdraw his remarks.

Senator Beveridge remained in the chamber for some little time and continued to smoke his cigar. He remarked to those who spoke to him, on the subject that it did not amount to anything. He made no effort to resist or resent the attack made on him. In fact, the whole thing was over in a very brief interval before much resistance could have been offered.

Beveridge Expressed Regret.

When Mr. Beveridge was asked last night if he had any statement to make regarding the assault committed on him by Mr. Bailey, he expressed great regret over what had occurred and said he had no personal resentment over the matter. The conversation between them immediately before the trouble, Mr. Beveridge said, was substantially the same as that which had occurred in the senate chamber regarding the attack on Judge Penfield, who is an Indiana man, except that on his (Beveridge's) part it was much milder in tone. Mr. Beveridge said that he was not excited, but remained cool and collected, and expressed to Mr. Bailey his wish that their relations might continue agreeable.

Mr. Beveridge denied that he had been choked by Mr. Bailey. According to his version the Texas senator had made a lunge at him, but his arm was caught by Senator Spooner before the threatened blow landed.

Bailey criticized the state department for its handling of the case of an American citizen, Dr. Scott, and reflected on the competency of Judge Penfield, solicitor of the department. Mr. Beveridge characterized the words of the Texas senator as "unwarranted attack." This characterization Mr. Bailey regarded as an insult and demanded that the Indiana senator withdraw his words.

Mr. Beveridge declined to withdraw them, unless Mr. Bailey first withdrew his language in respect to Solicitor Penfield, although he disclaimed any intention of insulting Mr. Bailey.

The trouble grew out of a resolution offered by Mr. Bailey, calling for the papers in a Mexican mining case, in which he maintained Dr. Scott had been unfairly treated, not only by the Mexican courts, but also by the American ambassador, Mr. Clayton and the officials of the state department. Mr. Bailey declared Ambassador Clayton was either incompetent or dishonest, and his remarks led to some test rejoinders.

Elkins Spoke For Amendment.

Early in the session Mr. Elkins, of West Virginia, delivered an earnest speech in favor of annexation of Cuba, maintaining that it would be in the best interests of both countries.

Mr. Elkins' remarks drew a sharp fire from Mr. Platt, of Connecticut, and Mr. Hanna, of Ohio, who deprecated any annexation proposition at this time, and urged that the United States ought to be sensible to its obligations to the civilized world, if not to Cuba. After a lively colloquy, in which General Wood was criticised by inference, for using Cuban funds to advance the reciprocity propaganda, Mr. Elkins' resolution for an annexation was referred to the Cuban relations committee.

Among the many bills passed was one giving Rear Admiral Schley the pay and allowance of a rear admiral on the active list in the navy.

ROUTE UP THE RIVER

Wabash Begins Suit for Appropriation of Land at Steubenville.

Steubenville, July 1.—The Steubenville & Toronto Railway company, which is the company organized for the purpose of extending the Wabash railroad from this city to Toronto, commenced suit against Elizabeth T. Sarratt and Caroline Oliver in probate court yesterday to appropriate land belonging to the Turnbull estate near the Hartje paper mills in the north end of this city.

The petition filed by the new company gives the first intimation throwing any light on the route to be followed in extending the railroad through the north end of the city. As the strip of ground is described as being located from Logan street north to the lands of Mary Salmon, between the C. & P. railroad tracks and low water mark of the Ohio river, it would seem to be the intention of the company to build the new railroad along the river bank outside the C. & P. tracks.

The plaintiff says the C. & P. railroad company and the Pennsylvania company claim to have some title to the property and asks that they be required to set up such claim. The case has been set for preliminary hearing on Monday, July 14.

Valuable Horse Hurt.

PAINTER FELL TO HIS DEATH

Frank Neal, of Jethro, Killed by
a Fall While at Work
at Empire.

HIS RIBS WERE BROKEN

And Other Internal Injuries Resulted Fatally After Intense Suffering.

BROTHER SAW ACCIDENT.

Frank Neal, a painter, who resides in Jethro Hollow, met with a fatal accident at Empire Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock while engaged in painting the house of Richard Bell, of that town. His brother, I. N. Neal, also of this city, was his companion at work.

Neal had placed a ladder against the kitchen roof of the house and a board from the ladder over to the cornice at the top of the building about 10 feet higher than the kitchen roof. In some manner the board gave way, precipitating Neal to the ground, a distance of 22 feet.

He alighted on a post at the gate, the fall breaking two of his ribs and badly crushing another. He was picked up almost unconscious and carried into the home of Mr. Bell.

Dr. Collins, of Toronto, and Dr. Albaugh, of Empire, were summoned, and used all efforts possible to save the life of the unfortunate man, but it was found that he had been badly injured internally, his liver having been lacerated by contact with the crushed ribs. He lingered until 2:30 o'clock Sunday morning, suffering intensely, and death came to his aid.

The body was brought to his late home in Jethro on the 3 o'clock train Sunday afternoon.

Frank Neal was 39 years old and had been married twice. A married daughter, two single daughters and a son by his first wife survive him, and two young children by his second marriage, as well as the widow, mourn his unfortunate fate.

No arrangements have as yet been made for the funeral, but in all probability he will be buried from the home tomorrow.

ROLLED OVER A HILL

Two Lisbon Men And a Rig Had a Frightful Experience.

Lisbon, June 30.—(Special)—Surveyor G. P. Farmer and his assistant, Lycurgus Green, of Lisbon, had an accident last Friday evening which might easily have had very serious results. They were driving down Kendall's hill, about two miles from Elkton, after dark, and were so anxious to keep from running over the hill that they upset the rig on the other side of the road at a very narrow place.

The buggy rolled over the embankment into the ravine and carried both men and the horse on an exciting roll to the bottom, about 50 feet below. The rig was smashed beyond repair, but no other damage was done.

THE WAGON A WRECK

Things.

A horse belonging to J. S. Campbell, the groceryman of Second and Market streets, ran away on Thompson hill Saturday afternoon. Mr. Campbell was taking orders and left the horse standing unhitched in the street. The animal started to walk down the hill and the wagon having no brake-lock began pushing on him, which scared him and he ran away, continuing his flight until he ran against a tree and fence near Monroe Patterson's house.

The delivery wagon was smashed badly and is almost a complete wreck. Groceries were scattered along the way and the horse sustained a number of cuts and bruises from the accident.

Bruised by a Fall.

Robert Twaddle and Jess Carey, two kilmen, were tapping a bung Saturday afternoon in a kiln at the Burford pottery, when both lost their balance. Carey managed to jump and save himself from injury, but Twaddle fell quite a distance, alighting on the green sagers. Beyond being considerably bruised, he did not sustain serious injury. He is off duty, however.

KEYSER DEFIED POLICE OFFICERS

Said to Be Raising Great
Disturbance.

Officers McDermott and Aufderheide had an unenviable experience late Saturday night when they went to Jack Keyser's shanty boat near the old flint mill in response to a telephone message, stating that Jack was on one of his very common sprees and was making things very uncomfortable for his wife and children.

The rain was dashing when the officers made their nocturnal visit and they had the greatest difficulty in reaching the boat. When within a hundred yards of his home they heard his fiendish yells and the screams of his wife and family, but to their utter surprise when they boarded the boat and secured entrance Jack was in bed and to all appearances asleep.

Knowing that he was shamming the officers rudely aroused him and they state that he at first cried like a baby, but finally became bold and laughed at them when they threatened to take him to the central police station, informing them that the mayor could do nothing but turn him loose. This the officers knew was true, because the man is crippled, having but one leg and a broken arm. The work house will not accept cripples, and he having gone to his quarters, the officers let him remain.

HARRY PARSONS, NEWSPAPER ARTIST, AND HIS BRIDE,
SENATOR HANNA'S DAUGHTER MABEL.

Mabel Hanna, daughter of the millionaire United States senator from Ohio, evidently has a mind of her own. When Harry Parsons, the poor Cleveland newspaper artist, told her that he loved her, and she admitted that she reciprocated the feeling, she engaged secretly, got the young man the position of private secretary to her father and finally won the senator's consent to their marriage, which was recently solemnized.

AN AGED VICTIM OF HIGHWAYMEN

by John Brown and Another Man.

WAS FIRST KNOCKED DOWN

Identifies Brown As One of His Assail-
ants—Police Looking for the Other.
His Story of the Assault Upon Him.
Stolen Pocketbook Recovered.

To a charge of highway robbery John Mack, when arraigned before the mayor this morning, pleaded not guilty, and was committed to jail without bail, to await preliminary examination set for Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The story of the affair, as unfolded by the victim, John Mack, who is nearing 70 years, and who makes his home with James Webb, the building contractor, was quite pathetic, and the officers present when he preferred the charge were perceptibly moved. A man of years, tottering the streets helplessly, to be the victim of an outrageous assault was something the staid officers could not view with indifference.

He said: "I was standing on the Diamond last evening about 5 o'clock when this man Brown and another man came up to me and wanted me to take them to a saloon and buy them a drink. I told them I had no money, but they kept insisting, and when they offered me a razor for 50 cents I bought it, and thought I was rid of them. They went away but in a few minutes came back and Brown wanted me to go to the alley near the fire station on East Market street.

"I did not know what he wanted but went anyway. When I got there the man that I don't know hit me under the eye and knocked me down into a dry goods box. Brown then put one of his hands over my mouth and with the other reached in my pocket and stole my pocketbook, which had $6 in it. Then they both started to run away, but Brown came back and tried to act as if he didn't do it but that he was a friend of mine."

Officer Ruhe, who made the arrest, continued the story. He said:

"Brown and Mr. Mack entered the fire station together and Brown said that two fellows had assaulted and robbed Mack and that some of the officers ought to look into the matter. Mack immediately said: 'There is the man that got my money, pointing at Brown. Brown denied it strongly and objected to my searching him, but I did and found the pocketbook with the money. He acted as though very much surprised.'"

Brown has darkened the mayor's office threshold probably more than any other man in the city, and as his reputation is against him, it is very likely that he will be given the full penalty of the law if found guilty of the crime for which he is now incarcerated. The police are making a search for the unknown man but are handicapped, not having even a good description of him.

I. O. O. F. Degrees.

East Liverpool lodge No. 379, of the I. O. O. F., will confer the second and third degrees upon five members at their regular meeting to-night.

AN EARLY SESSION STRONGLY URGED

Judge Shauck Says It Is Impera-
tive That the Legislature

GOV. NASH WILL NOT DELAY

Scounded—The Great Democratic
bring Wants a Military Company.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, June 30.—It is practically settled that an extra session of the legislature will be held at an early date. Talk was indulged in that the session would not be called together until after the fall election, but Governor Nash has disposed of this by stating that he proposes to act with as much haste as is compatible with the interests of the state in the matter of calling an extraordinary session. Judge Shauck, of the supreme court, who wrote the opinions in the famous Toledo and Cleveland cases, says an early session is imperative.

In an interview, the well known jurist said: "There are two important propositions to be considered. First, the municipal code bill, and then the amendment to the Royer act. It would not take 15 minutes to draw a bill amending the Royer law so that the supreme court would be restored to its original jurisdiction. The municipal code question is an important one, and yet it should not take a commission long to map out a plan of action, as the Comings municipal code bill, when the legislature adjourned, was left in fairly good shape. That would be the basis for a new bill." The judge pronounced the principle in the bill providing for the classification of cities and villages sound. It provides that municipalities over 5,000 population shall be classed as cities, and those under that mark, villages. He said this would be constitutional. He does not consider it necessary for the special session to consider the county officers' salary matter. The recent decisions of the court sounds the death knell of ripper legislation. The policy of the court is well known now, and it will be mere waste of time hereafter to enact this sort of legislation because it will be promptly thrown out by the courts. The attitude of the court does not suit the politicians in many of the large cities, but it will commend itself to the vast majority of the common people. While the municipalities of the state have been suddenly plunged into a muddled condition, they will surely, in due course of time, be placed on a firm and stable foundation. The action of the court simply hastens the coming of a uniform system of government for Ohio cities.

Democracy's big clambake will be held in this city tomorrow. Last Saturday the fires were started under the supervision of an expert from the east who knows all there is worth knowing about clams. Between 5,000 and 10,000 clams will be consumed. Of course there will be a big crowd present. There will be enough to eat, and speechmaking until you can't rest. The managers hope to make the meeting a harmony affair. All the various branches of the party will be on hand. Hon. John C. Welty, of Canton, will

discourse on "Keep on Letting Well Enough Alone." Ex-Mayor James A. Rice, of Canton, will regale his auditors with "Cuss Words For the Enemy."

There is a movement on foot to form an independent military company at Sebring. Those who have been pushing it have communicated with Adjutant General Gyger in regard to securing Springfield rifles for the members, but as the state has none available they will have to get them from some other source. Former members of the old East Liverpool company which was in the Eighth regiment until the close of the Spanish war, are interested in the movement. They are employed in the Sebring potteries.

HIS PLAN OF CAMPAIGN.

An anti-saloon campaign is in progress.

Rev. Dr. Perley A. Baker, of Columbus, superintendent of the Ohio Anti-Saloon league, is in the city, having arrived on Saturday evening. He will remain for several days and while here he hopes to entouse the temperance advocates to such an extent that they will take certain decisive steps which will result in the abolishment of the saloon in this municipality.

With that object in view Dr. Baker addressed congregations in the First M. E., First Presbyterian and First Methodist Protestant churches yesterday, and today met a joint session of the ministers of the city and presented to them the reasons for the obliteration of the saloons and told how to bring it about. He states that although he will do everything in his power toward the one end, he cannot do the work alone.

It is up to the people, he says, to unite in force, secure the endorsement of the business men and all carry on a campaign together. Then, he believes, the chances will be greatly in favor of a temperance victory. Just when the steps are to be commenced in the work he was unable to say, but advised that if the law abiding citizens want the question voted on, they have the votes cast before the late fall. His argument for this was that only during the summer months can out-of-door meetings be held with any satisfactory results, and as such meetings will be very essential before the vote is taken he urges that the delay be not of long duration. The most potent of his remarks made before the several congregations yesterday follow:

"You have a mighty struggle before you in the abolishment of the saloon from your community. It is hardly necessary for me to point out to you the curses, brought upon your citizens as the result of the rum traffic. You certainly, as Christian men and women, not being among the low element, have a desire always to soar among the righteous. However, I am afraid you do not realize the enormity of the crime which lurks around these cursed holes.

"I visited three saloons in your city last night and the sights that met my eyes can only be compared with those witnessed in the lowest dens of our largest cities. One of these saloons was occupied by young men and women, all drunk and carousing in debauchery of the lowest state. The women were of the vilest character. Some of them were yet in their teens. For me to describe the terrible way in which they were acting would not be in the realms of decency. How can the good people of the city sit and be content while such things are occurring in their midst?

"The sights in these saloons did not impress me as much as did others that confronted me. I don't believe that I ever saw in any city as many young girls from 14 to 20 years of age roaming the streets at midnight. They were out by the dozens, meeting boys and men of the lowest depths of degradation. I am sure that a great many of these girls come from respectable families. Is it possible that Christian people are going to let the chance drift past without doing something toward ridding the community of the curse which is the instigator of all these evils?

"Rum shops are to be abhorred in every locality of the world. They breed crime of every type. Anarchy would not exist were it not for the saloons. Follow President McKinley's assassin from his early boyhood until he sat in the electric chair. You will find that he was raised in the saloon and that every anarchistic view promulgated to him was made in a saloon.

"The awful curse has been provided for by the state legislature. When the Beall local option bill was passed the right was thereby given the people to

A TRIBUTE TO M'KINLEY.

Tablet of Judge Anderson Unveiled in M. E. Church, in Washington. President Present.

Washington, June 30.—A small tablet of white marble bearing in letters of gold a brief statement of the life and deeds of William McKinley, the tribute of his friend, Judge Thomas H. Anderson, formerly of Ohio, but now a member of the District bench, was unveiled in the Metropolitan M. E. church here yesterday. The unveiling was attended with a simple ceremony, in the presence of some of those who had helped the dead president to execute the will of the people.

Well-known men added their tributes to the solemn melodies of the choir in making the occasion a memorial one. The American flag that concealed the tablet was drawn aside as the congregation sang with deep feeling, "Nearer, My God, to Thee." The tablet occupies a position on the north wall of the main auditorium, midway between the two entrances to the church.

President Roosevelt and Secretary Cortelyou were present. Addresses were made by Rev. Frank Bristol, D. D., pastor of the church; Senator Fairbanks, Representative Grosvenor and Representative Robert W. Taylor, of Ohio, who now represents the district in congress formerly represented by President McKinley.

The tablet is about three feet high by two feet wide, and is in the form of a shield. At the apex of the shield a small cross is carved, while at the bottom is the shield from the great seal of the United States. Beneath the cross are the words, "Nearer My God, to Thee." The main inscription is on the body of the shield. Below the border are the last words of the dead president—"Thy will, not ours, be done."

TRIBUTES TO DEAD MEMBERS.

House Session Sunday In Memory of Cummings and Otey.

Washington, June 30.—The house of representatives held a session yesterday to pay tribute to the memories of the late Representative Cummings, of New York, and the late Representative Peter J. Otey, of Virginia. By special direction of Secretary Moody the Marine band was in attendance in the lobby in the rear of the hall, and rendered an appropriate musical program. The widows and families of the deceased occupied the speaker's pew in the galleries, and delegations from Typographical Union No. 6, of New York; the Letter Carriers' association, and the New York Pilots' association came here to honor Mr. Cummings' memory. The public galleries were well filled.

The eulogies were exceedingly impressive, especially that led by Mr. Cannon, of Illinois, the veteran chairman of the appropriations committee, who paid a tribute from the heart to the lofty character and manly honesty of Mr. Cummings. Others also paid eulogies.

Speeches of eulogy were also made by certain members in memory of Mr. Otey.

The American Derby, to be run at Washington park, Chicago, June 21, will be the greatest event of the year in western horse circles. Turfmen everywhere have been looking forward to the running of this race, and the starters will carry large sums of money.

Abe Frank, G. C. Bennett's chestnut colt, still holds favorite in the advance betting and according to form should "turn the trick," but the uncertainty of horse racing has shown conclusively that the most favorite of favorites can go wrong when put to the final test, and some unheard of outsider may get first money just as did Alfred Featherstone's four-year-old chestnut mare Reina in the recent Brooklyn handicap.

A fine field will go to the post in the American Derby, and among those sure to give Abe Frank a stirring tussle are Clarence H. Mackay's Heno, who is now said to be in top notch form despite recent defeats; Green B. Morris' Old England, R. T. Wilson's Dixieline, Jacob Worth's Oom Paul, E. J. Baldwin's Cruzados, S. C. Hildreth's McChesney, J. G. Follansbee's Keynote, J. E. Madden's Pentecost and J. A. Drakes' Wyeth and Rannels.

In the west McChesney and Cruzados are highly thought of by the "hot stove" circuit, but neither has been asked to display anything. Hildreth, who at the best is not communicative, says he is satisfied with McChesney, but knows no more than any one else how good the colt now is. He refuses to hurry him, although it is quite likely McChesney will be given a breezing before the Derby. Cruzados is receiving a world of touting, almost enough to kill off his chances, according to the precedent which has ruled recent Derbys.

One of the significant deals of recent occurrence was the purchase by Sam Hildreth of the Derby candidate Lord Quex from Albert Simons. Lord Quex has been raced and unless he gets too much of it will be well seasoned, and it was the seasoned youngsters that won the last two Derbys, horses lightly thought of, but courageous and able to stand the racking journey. Lord Quex, in addition, can run on any kind of a track.

There is another western horse that deserves a word, although he generally has been thought shy in the class which makes up a real Derby horse. That is Lucien Appleby, also under the care of the shrewd trainer Hildreth. Appleby ran second to Articulate through the mud at Worth recently and, carrying only six pounds less, 106 to 112, was beaten a length and a half in a mile and seventy yards journey. Appleby probably would be smothered by the speed in front of him on a fast track, but if the Washington park track should happen to be heavy, as it was in 1898 and less so in 1900, he might be worth pondering over.

The American Derby is a sweepstakes for three-year-olds; $25 to accompany the nomination; $225 additional to start; $25,000 added, of which $3,000 goes to the second and $2,000 to the third horse. A winner of a three-year-old stake of the value of $3,000 to carry three pounds; of two such stakes, or $5,000, five pounds; of three or more three-year-old stakes of the value of $3,000 each, seven pounds extra. Maidens are allowed seven pounds. This year's race has ninety-seven nominations.

Fat For Frying.

If, when you are frying fish or croquettes, the fat begins to froth, the temperature is too low. Finish cooking what you have in the pan, but before cooking any more reheat the fat until a blue smoke rises from it.

Cigar Ashes.

If you saved the ash of all the cigars you smoked, you would have consumed 1,600 before you had a pound of ash.

A Cooking Hint.

Salt pork is an excellent substitute for butter in sauteing almost any sort of food where butter might be used. Don't forget, too, that a few drops of olive oil for delicate frying is far better than butter at any price.

Hives are a terrible torment to little folks, and to some older ones. Easily cured. Doan's Ointment never fails. Instant relief, permanent cure. At any drug store, 50 cents.
